POLICE ARRIVE IN TIME TO STOP MORE BLOODSHED

Union Men Tell Different Story as to Origin of the Disturbance.

Fatally injured: ANTONIO SERROCHE. Arrested: DANIEL MARTIN, charged with assault to murder. JOSEPH LOPEZ, assault with a deadly weapon. ANTONIO SARCOP, assault with a deadly weapon

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1—As the culmination of a labor dispute among the members of the Ship Scalers Union which has been characterized by the bitterest fight on both sides and which has led to more than one threatening act there was a serious riot resulting in bloodshed, the fatal injury of one man and the arrest of three others at 7 o'clock this morning

The entire Potrero section of the city where the trouble occurred was stirred up into a frenzy of excitement by the news of the shooting of the man and the arrest of three others at 7 o'clock this morning

ONE FATALLY WOUNDED

In consequence there has been a feeling against him and although the stories of the exact incidents leading up to this morning's disturbance differ materially the fact remains that Antonio Serroche, 28 years old, residing at 1419 Greenwich street, lies probably fatally injured at the Central Emergency hospital with a bullet in his left groin while Martin is charged at the Central Station with assault to murder and Joseph Lopez and Antonio Sarcop are both accused of assault with a deadly weapon

There were between fifty and seventy-five men in the corner of Potrero and First avenue at 7 o'clock this morning when Martin said. According to his version of the affair he was set upon by some of the men who began to punch him

In a moment several rocks were hurled from the crowd, and fearing personal injury and perhaps death he drew a revolver from his pocket and emptied it into the crowd. Fortunately but one bullet took effect and Serroche dropped groaning to the pavement. He fell with the fatal wound on the face and hands

Most of them left for their homes without reporting to the police

After Serroche had been taken to the Central Emergency hospital he gave his story of the shooting which differed considerably from the tale told by Martin. He declared that Jose Calvo of 224 Third street, had stepped from the crowd and asked Martin whether the difference between the men could not be peaceably adjusted

MAN GETS NERVOUS The number of men pressing up against Martin made the latter nervous and he drew his revolver and

SEEK IMMIGRANTS WHO WILL TILL CANADA'S SOIL

Northern Government Officials Advertise for Laborers and Land Owners.

INCOMERS NOT ALLOWED TO OVERCROWD CITIES

Salaried Agents Seek Desirable Aliens in Every Corner of the Earth.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Canada wants immigrants whose purpose is to enter into agricultural pursuits either as land owners, tenants or laborers and desires to keep out those immigrants whose presence would tend to the congestion of towns and cities.

This is probably the most important statement made in a report submitted to Congress today by Senator Dillingham, chairman of the joint immigration commission in regard to the immigration situation in Canada.

Another striking feature of the report is the comparison of immigration into Canada during the last decade with that into the United States.

This shows that while 70 per cent of Canada's immigrants during that period came from northern and western Europe and only 30 per cent from southern and eastern Europe the reverse was true of the immigrants entering the United States. The report says "No effort is made to secure immigrants from southern and western Europe and unless it is the purpose of such immigrants to enter agricultural pursuits their admission to Canada is doubtful."

SALARIED AGENTS

On the other hand it is pointed out that effort is made through salaried agents of the Canadian immigration department to attract immigrants to whom a bonus or commission is paid and by means of advertising to secure immigrants from the United Kingdom, France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Denmark, Iceland, Finland, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland and the United States.

Of the total number of immigrants going from the United States to Canada during the last three years more than seven eighths were classified as farmers or farm laborers. Probably no other considerable present movement of population from one country to another is so largely composed of agricultural people.

From 1900 to 1909 in Western Canada 23,690 homesteads were entered for more than 66 per cent of the entries being immigrants divided as follows:

ENGLISH IN LEAD

English 30.39 per cent, Scotch 5.70 per cent, Irish 1.89 per cent, continental Europeans 27.67 per cent and Americans 44.91 per cent.

Canadians give great liberty to their immigration authorities in the matter of restrictions or admissions and allows her officials substantial freedom in the matter of deportation. All persons who become public charges within two years after landing are deported. No one is deported from Canada because of previous arrangements made for securing employment. The Dominion maintains free information or employment bureaus in the principal centers for the benefit of immigrants seeking employment.

In dealing with Oriental immigration Canada has adopted a policy that practically excludes Asiatic labor.

Thousands of women vainly attempt to improve their complexions and to remove blackheads, crows feet and other blemishes through the use of cosmetics. This treatment fails because the trouble lies deeper than impure and impoverished blood. This condition is in many cases due to a catarrhal condition of the whole system which finds its expression in low muddy complexion, dark circles under the eyes, general weakness of the system and general weakness of the system and general weakness of the system.

In fact this whole tendency is properly speaking Catarrh. Catarrh is a general term and the complexion will clear as if by magic. Eyes will brighten, faces become rosy and shoulders erect. Perfect beauty goes only with perfect health and perfect health for women can only be obtained through a certain treatment—that which will cure catarrh.

Mrs. Swift, New York, the famous beauty specialist known throughout the world and an accepted authority on all relating thereto states that the one real and permanent relief for catarrh is Rexall Mucic Tonic. Here is her letter:

I can strongly endorse the claims made for Rexall Mucic Tonic as a cure for catarrh. Its tonic effects are remarkable. It builds up the strength and restores vitality. If women who are tired and run down lacking in energy and vitality will use Rexall Mucic Tonic they will please as I do its strengthening and healing qualities.

Rexall Mucic Tonic works through the blood acting thus upon the mucous cells—the congestion and inflammation of which causes local catarrh. This remedy causes poison to be expelled from the system and the blood is purified and revitalized. Thus the natural functions of the mucous cells are restored and the membranes are cleansed and made strong.

We know that Rexall Mucic Tonic does relieve catarrh. We positively guarantee to refund the money paid for this remedy in every case where the user is dissatisfied. It is a builder of vigorous health and a creator of good complexions. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. Mail orders filled. It may be obtained only at our store—The Rexall Store, Owl Drug Co. Inc. 10th and Washington 13th and Broadway 15th and San Pablo ave.

Spring Floods Fall Short of Expectation

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 1.—The unprecedented spring flood which had been expected here on account of the unusually heavy snowfall along the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers sheds its white mantle and is now being known in the rivers at this early date. At the point where the two rivers meet to form the Ohio the official gauge is now but 36 feet—so low that the United States engineers are today raising the water at the dams in order to make the water higher.

Antique Wheelbarrow Cause of Council Row

ELSAH, Illinois, April 1.—Because H. L. Mott, village president, insisted on pushing a plowman wheelbarrow along the main street sidewalks a factional fight has developed that threatens to disrupt all political traditions here.

Mott vetoed an ordinance forbidding wheelbarrows on sidewalks and to show his scorn of such legislation yesterday appeared on Main street with a dilapidated barrow and defied any person to molest him. A special meeting of the council was immediately called for Tuesday to pass the ordinance over Mott's veto.

HEN RAISING MOST PROFITABLE OF INDUSTRIES

Speakers Dwell Upon the Artificial Methods of Hatching Fowls.

OCCUPATION FIT FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Demand for Eggs and Birds Far Exceeds Present Supply.

The incubation and brooding of chickens was the subject of discussion at Wednesday night's meeting of the Alameda County Poultry Association which met at the rooms of the Polytechnic Business College for the discussion of chicken raising. The speaker of the evening, Stanley Wilkins of the State Experimental Farm, was unable on account of other business to be present at the session and on this account F. B. Van Nostrand and A. H. Gregory, prominent poultry men of this county, in lieu of the speaker, were called on to discuss the use of incubators.

The incubator has come to stay in the poultry industry, said Van Nostrand, and it has proven itself a success. It will soon be as necessary on our small farms as the plough or other agricultural instruments, partly because of its efficiency in the raising of poultry, and partly because it can be handled by women, children or cripples with the greatest ease. Another reason for its use is the fact that the poultry supply can not exceed the demand as the winter the birds are hatched and will be ready to hatch in the spring.

HEALTHY HENS NECESSARY

First comes the egg. This must be for the first time a fresh egg and in the first place it must be laid by a hen that is in the laying stage. It is not a good idea to hatch a weak chicken which will not live. Hens must have food and fresh air in order to produce good eggs.

Incubation period. Incubation should be about 21 days in certain conditions. In a winter, days will be longer and nights shorter. In the summer, days will be shorter and nights longer. The temperature should be kept at 99.5 degrees. The humidity should be kept at 75 percent. The ventilation should be kept at 10 percent. The food should be kept at 10 percent. The water should be kept at 10 percent. The light should be kept at 10 percent. The air should be kept at 10 percent. The humidity should be kept at 10 percent. ### Accuses Husband of Having Affinities

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Mrs. Mary L. Rivas was granted a divorce from John B. Rivas by Superior Judge Van Nostrand yesterday on the ground that her husband boasted of his having affinities. It was shown that within the past few months he had endeavored to make arrangements with his niece, Margaret Lucero, to elope with her and leave his wife and family, but that she had frustrated his plans.

William W. Quinton in the same department secured an annulment of his marriage to Mabel Flood Quinton, to whom he was wedded in September, 1909. He testified that he had lived with her only four days when he discovered that she had a husband living by the name of Flood from whom she had not been divorced.

UNION WITHDRAWS FROM CONFERENCE

Typographical Body Will Send No More Delegates to Charter Meetings.

Following the suggestion of the Joint Union Labor Charter Conference, the Typographical Union at Wednesday night's meeting voted to withdraw its delegates from all charter conferences other than that of the union men until such time as the labor conference will be able to vote at the Greater Oakland convention as a body. This action suggested by the union conference at its last meeting was taken at the discretion of the union itself. The Central Labor Council, which was asked to request the withdrawal of the delegates refusing to make the request and leaving the matter to be decided by the unions sending the delegates.

The action of the Typographical Union known among labor men as the oldest and most stable of all the unions in existence, will probably result in all other unions now sending delegates to the Greater Oakland convention in taking the same action. The union men believe that if their protests are first threshed out among themselves and later presented to other conventions with the solid backing of the organized labor, the results will be more effective and on this ground the Building Trades Council at their last meeting asked that the Central Labor act in the matter of withdrawing the delegates of its affiliated unions. The Central Union believing that this matter was beyond its province refused to make any recommendation suggesting only that all unions attend the labor conference, but leaving the attendance of delegates to the discretion of the delegates.

UNITARIAN OFFICER GUEST OF HONOR

Corresponding Secretary of Alliance Lectures at Meeting of Local Order.

Mr. Robert H. Davis, corresponding secretary of the National Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Workers, was the guest of honor at the meeting given yesterday afternoon at the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian Church of this city in Wendell Hall. The Joint Labor Charter Conference of the afternoon reported on the showing the growth and status of the local organization which has a membership enrollment of sixty-two. Mrs. K. Van Harlingen, acting president of the Alliance, presided over the meeting which was addressed by Mr. Davis who recently visited from Boston the headquarters of the National Alliance.

During her brief sojourn in California Mrs. Davis will visit the different Unitarian Church Alliances on the Pacific Coast and the southwestern states where she is well known among Unitarian church workers.

All the Alliance societies which she has visited have been very cordially welcome and have given her a most extensive tour on the Coast.

Legates at others at the direction of the unions as individual bodies. The Joint Labor Charter Conference which planned to hold a meeting at Carpenters Hall Wednesday night postponed the meeting two weeks on account of the absence on business of President R. M. Hamb of that body and the illness of Secretary F. H. Pratt. The meeting will take place a week from next Wednesday night at the Building Trades Headquarters.

A GOOD TONIC

Sometimes Necessary to Restore Lost Strength and Health.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Are the Best and Safest Tonic as is Shown by This California Woman's Experience.

Whenever the blood becomes thin and watery or impure the whole system suffers. Energy is lacking, vitality is low and the victim falls an easy prey to any disease which happens to be prevalent, such as the grip or acute fevers.

To keep the system in normal condition, the appetite good, the steps vigorous, the brain clear and the muscles strong, a tonic is sometimes necessary. With the body thus toned up and the organs active there is a greatly reduced danger from prevalent diseases, since the germs are overcome and passed off as nature intended they should be.

The tonic used should be efficacious and at the same time safe and harmless for the weakest constitution. Such a remedy is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The tonic effect of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is well shown in the following statement of Mrs. Mary Wilder of No. 1856 India street San Diego Cal.

"I have found Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to be the best tonic I have ever tried. For several years I was always run down during the spring months and was subject to attacks of the grip. I would be completely exhausted and hardly able to do any work. Every muscle in my body would ache. I had no appetite and it seemed that I could find out just what would strengthen me."

A friend told me about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I began using them. Before I had taken the first box I felt better. I kept on taking them and gained in strength until I was cured.

The tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills by building up the blood so that it can nourish and strengthen the weakened system has made hundreds of cures in the most severe disorders. This record of cures should merit a trial for the remedy which is guaranteed free from opiates and is entirely harmless.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or sent by mail postpaid on receipt of price. 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

FRAUD IS CHARGED TO ART DEALER

New York Collector Seeks an Attachment on Supposed Spurious Paintings.

NEW YORK, April 1.—An attachment on the "Gathering of the Manna" by Rubens and on "The Virgin Holding the Christ" by Gerard Davis two paintings entered at the customs house as worth the one $50,000 and the other $40,000 has been asked by Dr. John E. Stillwell, a New York collector, who thinks he has the worst of his bargain with the picture dealers.

Dr. Stillwell is suing Herr Emil Paul, a German dealer for $30,000 on charges that in an exchange of pictures he was given an alleged Jan Van Goyen which he now believes to be spurious. Paul exhibited a certificate in court today from Herr Friedl under director of the Kaiser Friedrich Museum to prove that the Van Goyen was genuine.

The authenticity of the paintings by Emil Rubens and Gerard Davis on which he is sought to issue an attachment is not questioned. They are both verified by the King of Spain and Dr. Stillwell seeks to hold them to cover his alleged loss in the Van Goyen transaction.

DUELISTS FIGHT IN GOTHAM ALLEY

Chauffeur Only Witness to the Fatal Affray on New York Waterfront.

NEW YORK, April 1.—Two French men fought a duel early this morning in a New York street not far from the East side waterfront. One of them was killed by a shot through his head. His adversary escaped, leaving no clue to his identity.

The strange battle was seen as far as learned by only one witness, an automobile driver who was speeding down the street on his way to his up town home. By the light of his auto lamp though two blocks away he saw the two men step out from a hallway, measure off a certain number of paces and then turn quickly, revolvers in hand. There were three quick shots and one of the combatants fell. The other throwing down his weapon, dashed back into the hall way and made his escape.

The automobile quickly called the police. But the patrolman found nothing but the corpse and the two revolvers. The dead man has not yet been identified.

PHYSICIANS WARN EXERCISE 'FIENDS'

Overdoing of Exercise Harmful and Makes Hard Masses of Useless Muscle.

NEW YORK, April 1.—Be moderate in all things particularly in your recreation and exercise is the advice of the officers of the New York Academy of Medicine who are trying to teach the plain citizen how to keep healthy by simple common sense methods.

It is possible their latest pronouncement says to keep the muscular system in good condition with a few minutes exercise each day. The overdoing of exercise makes hard masses of muscles which are rather undesirable. They do not improve the power of digestion, interfere with sleep nor do they make for long life.

Don't make work of your play. What is needed is something to balance the emotional life and this is done by measurable exercise. It is not pleasant to get up from a cozy corner and a good book to take a long hard prescribed tramp alone. One will get more benefit from a shorter tramp in company with others and directed with pleasing conversation.

Imported Figs Cause Of Dispute at Capital

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Louis E. Parsons of New York, president of the Dried Fruit Association and five members of that organization had a hearing yesterday at the Department of Agriculture on their objections to the inspection of dried figs which is being enforced by the board of food and drug inspection.

The Department of Agriculture has insisted on a minimum of foreign substances and dirt in the imported figs. The trade men have claimed the requirement is too severe.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING

One of the few ladies of the European peninsula who can lay claim to horse-manship is Queen Victoria of Spain. As a rule Spanish ladies are too indolent to ride.

In a lonely lighthouse on a jutting ledge of Lima-rock on Rhode Island's coast, Ida Lewis is rounding out fifty-three years of government service. The nation's veteran keeper, she guards the entrance to Narragansett bay. Hale in her sixty-five years of strenuous activity, she is still untiring, dauntless and brave. In the face of gale and storm she has snatched from the tumbling waters of her steady beam on twenty-three human lives. Five of these lives she saved last summer. She is a pensioner of the Carnegie hero fund, holds the government first-class medal for bravery and the American cross of honor. Ida Walley Zoradla Lewis was made assistant keeper of Lima Rock light by congress in 1879 and succeeded her mother in 1887 as keeper. Her father was also keeper at his death in 1872. The United States awarded her a grand medal in gold for saving two men off the light in a terrible storm on February 4, 1881.

An entertaining anecdote is told of that great singer, Adeline Patt. She was engaged to give a concert at Bucharest, but a few days before the time fixed she decided it was so cold that she could not possibly travel. The poor impresario was in despair; the concert was the center of the season, and every seat was taken. At last he had a bright idea. He telegraphed to Patt. "Romanian nobles prepare grand welcome," and followed this message with a letter descriptive of the honors awaiting the great singer. Patt swallowed the bait and started for Bucharest. When her train drew up at the platform a military band played the national anthem, sixty gray-bearded noblemen in wonderful uniforms welcomed her with speeches, white-robed maidens threw roses in her path and an imposing cortege followed her to the Grand hotel, where, with much bowing and many compliments, she was installed.

Mrs. Irvine Is Set Free From Man Who Gave Her Drinks

NEW YORK.—Justice Gleicherich of the supreme court decided yesterday that when a girl, eighteen years old, drinks three or four cocktails, she is not in a frame of mind to realize the nature of a marriage ceremony. He accordingly annulled the marriage of Elsie Madeline Hugue Irvine of No. 401 West Forty-second street to Robert Irvine Jr.

The girl testified that Sunday evening, May 26, 1907, she was on her way to church when she met Irvine, who had been courting her. After service he asked her to take a walk and she went with him.

"He took me," she said, "to a place at Thirty-sixth and Broadway called the Marlboro, saying he wanted to get something to drink. I asked for a glass of soda, but there was none, and he ordered something else. We had two or three drinks, and then he took me to a restaurant at Fourth avenue and Twenty-eighth street."

TOLD OF DRINKS.

"What kind of drinks did you have in the Marlboro?" asked the court.

"I think they were some sort of cocktail, your honor."

She said she believed the drinks she had at the other place were "cocktails" or something even stronger.

Then Irvine took her to a taxi to the home of Henry Marsh Warner, "the marrying person." She remembered signing a paper, but little else.

A few days later Irvine told her she was his wife. She said she did not believe it, but he insisted it was true.

Frederick Hugue, the girl's father told of his daughter coming home that night. He said she seemed dizzy and said her head ached. She went to bed and was ill the next day. Irvine did not defend the suit.

A GREAT TALKER

I once met Miss Geneva. When passing by her gate.

And asked if she'd go strolling. She said "That would be great."

I spoke about the weather we'd all enjoyed of late.

Geneva showed her dimples, and smiled. "It has been great!"

Ensued a silence deadly, which, hoping to abate.

I asked her, "How's your mother?" She laughed, "Ma's feeling great!"

The minister, two novels, a play, my sister Kate—

No matter what I mentioned, Geneva thought 'twas great.

It happened, some months later—I don't recall the date.

She married Cousin Herbert (no doubt she thought him great).

"She neither sings nor waltzes now," played, I heard him state.

"But when it comes to talking, Geneva's simply great!"

MAN HAD TWENTY-FOUR WIVES

NEW YORK.—With twenty-four marriages to his credit, eleven of which he entered into in one year, Arthur P. Zimmerman, alias Baron Von Lichtenstein, was sentenced by Judge Dike in Brooklyn to Sing Sing prison for not more than nine years and six months and not less than four years and eight months. The punishment followed a conviction for perjury, which was a direct result of Zimmerman's last bigamous marriage, which he entered into in Brooklyn, after swearing before the Deputy City Clerk that he was single when he applied for a marriage license.

The only reason why Zimmerman did not answer a bigamy charge when called to trial was because a complaint of perjury was necessary to get him from Canada into the jurisdiction of the Brooklyn courts. It was his marriage to Mrs. Louise Hain that caused his trouble. After getting as much of her money as he could he went to Canada, and a few days later she learned that he had married Mrs. Emily Grooman, alias of Brooklyn, only a short time before.

Following Zimmerman's conviction last week Judge Dike caused an investigation to be made. From the information obtained from records and the services rendered to him by policemen Judge Dike learned that Zimmerman has had twenty-four wives and nearly as many convictions. Judge Dike's record showed that Zimmerman, who is now about fifty years old, began his marrying career in Germany in 1872, when he wedded Marie Gringier. His next marriage was in 1874. In the following year he wedded eleven women, mostly widows, who had been left with small sums of money.

Zimmerman came to America in 1876 and conducted his marrying exploits in New York, Connecticut and Massachusetts till 1886. Then there was a lapse of eleven years and in 1897 he took another bride. There was another lapse until 1904, when he made up for lost time by marrying three widows within the year.

In sentencing Zimmerman Judge Dike said:

"Marriage with you was not only a habit, it was a disease, and when, as in your case, it was accompanied with elements of high finance in always getting from your victims all the cash they possessed, your arrest and conviction became a positive boon to the community. Such a man who would prey upon the credulity of trusting women has no right to be free."

Broadway Flirt Gets Well Thrashed by Angry Hubby

NEW YORK.—Men and women on their way to the theaters shortly after 8 o'clock last night saw an angry husband thrash an alleged "madman" on Broadway, near Twenty-ninth street. The thrasher was Louis Pyle, of 231 West Forty-seventh street, the thrashee was Edward E. Knowlton, printer, of 241 East Twenty-first street.

Mr. Pyle and his wife, on their way to the theater, were walking down Broadway on the west side. Just above Twenty-ninth street he asked his wife to wait while he went into a cigar store to buy some cigarettes. When he emerged Mrs. Pyle was much excited. Knowlton was standing close to her. "What's the matter?" asked Pyle.

"That man insulted me grossly," said his wife, pointing to Knowlton.

Pyle did not waste words or time. He knocked him down. Knowlton arose and was knocked down again.

Of course a crowd gathered and wanted to know what was the matter. Pyle was too busy to tell. It was not until a policeman arrived that he let up.

"He insulted my wife," said Pyle. "He's one of these Broadway madmen!"

"And you kicked him?" queried the policeman.

"I tried to," said Pyle modestly.

"Good work," said the policeman, and the crowd echoed his words of approval.

Knowlton, taken to the West Thirtieth street station, was locked up on charges of intoxication and disorderly conduct. Then Mr. and Mrs. Pyle hurried to the theater.

Myra Kelly Writes "Finis" to Her Life

LONDON, April 1.—Myra Kelly (Mrs. Allan Macnaughton), the American educator and author, died yesterday at her home, 11, Bedford square, London. She was 62 years of age.

The news of Myra Kelly's death will be read with keen regret by thousands of American readers of her stories of the foreign-born children of the East Side in New York. She gathered the material for these stories while a teacher of a primary class in one of the great public schools of the tenement quarter of New York. Her stories, which afterward appeared in "Little Citizen and Wards of Liberty," were so bright and full of humor that they gained great popularity.

She will go to Martinez to attend a reception at the Curry home.

GIRL ON TRIP SOUTH STOPS OFF TO ELOPE

NEW YORK.—George H. Campbell, general superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio railway, received a telegram, dated Elliott City, Md., signed by his daughter, which read as follows:

"Papa—I am married."

(Signed) "ANNA MAY."

Thus briefly did Miss Campbell announce her marriage to Louis Hay Elchebarger, of Baltimore. It could not be said to be an entire surprise to Mr. Campbell, for he knew of his daughter's engagement to Mr. Elchebarger.

"It is all right," he said last night in his home in Plainfield, N. J. "I did not expect it to take place so soon, but my daughter and her husband will receive my blessing when they return from their honeymoon."

What Mr. Campbell did not know was that the young couple had indulged in an automobile wedding as the culmination of a romance which began in childhood. A few weeks ago Miss Campbell started to visit her grandmother in Louisiana. She broke her trip in Baltimore and stopped with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Knight. It was arranged that she should resume her journey yesterday.

Mr. Elchebarger had been a frequent visitor at Mrs. Knight's house during Miss Campbell's stay. He did not like to part from his fiancée, so he persuaded her that the happy day should no longer be delayed. With three friends the engaged pair went to Elliott City, the Gretchen Green of Maryland, on Wednesday evening, obtained a license and were married by the Rev. Vernon N. Kildgley.

SWALLOWED INK AND MATCHES WHEN FATHER TURNED DOWN LOVE FOR MAN

NEW YORK.—Rather than marry the man her father had chosen for her Angelina Muscare, aged 21 years, soaked about fifty matches under her water, swallowed the mixture, and then drank ink. She will recover.

For the past two weeks Angelina has been employed in a shirt-waist factory and there she met an operator with whom she fell in love. Her father, a cigar manufacturer and grocer, long ago decided that his daughter should wed John Ammie, also a cigar manufacturer.

Angelina openly defied her father last night and a bitter quarrel followed.

She went to work this morning at the usual hour, and had no sooner seated herself at a machine in the factory's operating room than she collapsed and fell to the floor in a faint. When physicians revived her she told what she had swallowed.

It will be Monday before the returns are received by the County Superintendent of Schools, giving the results of the election, which are then canvassed by the County Board of Education and certificates issued to the successful candidates.

The school census will be taken this year commencing on April 15th, and continuing until May 1st. The County Superintendent of Schools is acting in conjunction with the Federal enumerators in order to make as full a showing as possible for the districts of this county.

A joint letter has been addressed to the principals of the various schools in this regard, urging every aid to the enumerators.

We are in hopeful expectation that the results of the school census will aid us to increase our present force considerably as we are in need of more teachers."

Crack College Teams Will Meet on the Diamonds Tomorrow

SANTA CLARA AND PHOENIX ARE IN FINE TRIM

First Baseball Game Between Rival Colleges Will Draw Big Crowd.

The first game between St. Mary's College of Oakland and Santa Clara College will take place tomorrow afternoon in San Jose. The players of the Oakland college are in fine trim. Both teams are in excellent shape and from the indications of games played this season favor seems to lie with the Oakland aggregation who in its games with the Sacramento Coast League team the Oakland Matrons and other teams about the bay, made better scores than did the Santa Clara aggregation. Another point in the favor of the St. Mary's College baseball men is the fact that they have seven of their last years' players with them this year. While Santa Clara has but five.

The second game of the Santa Clara series will be played a week from tomorrow at Freeman's Park in Oakland and, if necessary, a third game will also be played in San Francisco a week after this. The lineups of the two teams at tomorrow's game will be as follows:

St. Mary's—Wilcox or Leonard pitcher; Simpson catcher; Wilkinson first base; Jugh second base; Wallace third base; Wagoner shortstop; Zacher left field; Roolin left field; Trumstad center field.

A big crowd is expected to attend the game. The tickets for the game are on sale at the Oakland Club and at the San Francisco Club. The game will be played at Freeman's Park in Oakland.

HANS WAGNER PROVES EXTREMELY INAPT AT GAME OF ANGLING

PITTSBURG, Pa. April 1.—Fish stories which come from the Pittsburgh baseball training camp relate that Hans Wagner, the best of the lot at the game, has proved the worst at fishing. On a jaunt up a river in the mountains near Hot Springs, Arkansas, yesterday the "Flying Dutchman" was as loutish of the minnows and worms, but it is sworn by all the other twenty-five members of the angling party that the three fish bass which the famous shortstop brought back to town were all bought of a small boy for a quarter. Hans has boasted of his ability as a fisherman, but really did not get even a bite. Others had good catches.

CHARTER CONVENTION CALLS OUT REPRESENTATIVE CROWD

Fear for Intrusion of Corporation Interests Causes Consideration of Amendments; Committees Created to Carry On Work

When President Thomas F. Marshall, in calling the charter convention of clubs to order, last evening, at the auditorium of the Polytechnic College, Twelfth street, expressed the sentiment that "this is the most representative body of citizens that has ever assembled in this city to consider matters of the greatest import to the future welfare and betterment of Oakland," it was hailed with a round of applause and when he announced that in view of the possibility of many knotty parliamentary questions being raised during the debate on the various subjects to be considered, in which he might desire to participate, he would surrender the gavel to the vice-chairman, Professor Ingraham, it excited good natured laughter.

Then the convention got down quickly to business. It was decided to restrict speeches to three minutes, which effectively prevented an oratorical display. Rescinding the possibility of trouble, although there was not a suggestion of any at any stage during the three hours' session three sergeants at arms were appointed.

ALL IN EARNEST.

While there were occasional humorous side-glances to the proceedings of the convention which excited laughter, there was no mistaking the earnestness of the delegates and the general desire which possessed them to bring about intelligent results with the least degree of friction and the minimum loss of time. At the same time, it was made clear on several occasions that a wholesome fear existed lest out of the multitude of motions, amendments and resolutions the convention should fall a prey to corporation interests and its purposes be thus defeated. This was particularly noticeable whenever, in the creation of committees, any effort was made to multiply their membership and thus make them cumbersome and unwieldy. Every attempt to enlarge a committee, on whatever plea it was made, was promptly scotched.

The session was devoted entirely to the organization of working committees. Those ultimately formed were a committee on platform, a judiciary committee, a committee to nominate fifteen freeholders and a publicity committee.

The following delegates were named by the chair to constitute the committees on platform: R. E. Gaylord, chairman, Ruben Wland, Thomas F. Marshall, E. A. Freeman and Arthur L. Adams.

These five were authorized under the resolution creating the committee to select four others out of the body of the convention, thus making a committee of nine.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE.

The committee to submit the names of fifteen freeholders to the convention at its next meeting was restricted to fifteen, notwithstanding a strong effort was made to enlarge it so that it should be composed of one delegate from each organization in the convention, which would have made it a committee of 114. That number of clubs and organized associations being represented on the convention roll. Of the fifteen finally agreed upon seven were named by the chair, as follows:

L. H. Clay, James P. Montgomery, W. E. Gibson, J. C. Frederickson, J. W. Smart, J. C. Downey and R. A. Leet. These seven were directed to name eight others from the list of the delegates which will then constitute the full committee.

JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

As there are many legal questions associated with the purpose of the convention, at the suggestion of the chair, a judiciary committee was organized to be composed of all the lawyers sitting as delegates. And on motion of Attorney Gray, Judge R. B. Myers was named as the chairman of the committee.

All legal points raised in the course of the work undertaken by the convention are to be referred to this committee. Such reference was made of the questions which were raised as to the eligibility of residents in the annexed district to serve as freeholders in the board of freeholders to be elected to frame a charter, and whether the election of freeholders came under the primary law.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLICITY.

A committee of publicity was formed consisting of the following members: Thomas F. Marshall, Harry C. Wuerth and James P. Montgomery.

The following resolution, offered by Delegate Golder was referred to the committee on platform:

"Be it resolved by the charter convention of the City of Oakland in meeting assembled, this 31st day of March, 1910, as follows:

"That the proposed new charter of the City of Oakland contain a section under the head or division of contracts, or any other proper head or division, as follows: "Every contract for work to be performed for the city, whether such contract be under the direct supervision of the city, or whether it be a sub-contract, must provide that in the performance of any such contract, eight hours shall be the maximum hours of labor on any calendar day and that the minimum wages of laborers employed by the contractor in the performance and execution of any such contract shall be $2.50 per day."

CITIZENS WORKMEN ONLY.

"Provided, however, that any and all work to be performed for the city, whether such contract be under the direct supervision of the city or whether such contract be a sub-contract, must provide that none but citizens of the United States of America shall be employed in the performance thereof. Any contract or sub-contract for work to be performed for the city which does not comply with the provisions of this section shall be null and void, and any officer who shall sign the same shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance and on proof of such malfeasance shall be removed from office."

The convention then adjourned for two weeks.

NO INDIGESTION OR SICK STOMACH

Heartburn, Gas, Headache and Dyspepsia Go and You Will Feel Fine in 5 Minutes.

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach. It doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Peppermint Triangles and let you eat one 25-grain Triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring. The Digestive organs become weak; there is lack of gastric juice, your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is feeble and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery. Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Dispepsin.

The G. A. R. committee, composed of William E. Bair, chairman; H. Bendel, P. W. Carroll, A. T. Needham and S. R. Chapman, appeared for the purpose of discussing the general scheme for decoration about the downtown district. The committee will also appear before the Supervisors with a request that they provide for the decoration of the courthouse and the Hall of Records. The City Council will also be approached in regard to decorating the city hall.

The street decorations will be under the supervision of the Merchants' Exchange and the Chamber of Commerce will provide for the publication of the official programs. Therefore the Grand

MADISON STREET PROPERTY SALE

Northeast Corner of Fourteenth Street Purchased by San Franciscan for $30,000.

The Layman Real Estate Company has just sold to Thomas Pennington of San Francisco the northeast corner of Fourteenth and Madison street, size 150x100, on which there is a fine two-story, fourteen-room residence, until recently occupied by Edison Adams, the well-known banker. The consideration of the transfer was $30,000.

Mr. Layman when interviewed as to the purposes the new owner will put the same to, said that the owner had no plans at present, but ultimately a fine apartment house would be built thereon, it being a corner especially adapted for that purpose. The purchaser is a San Francisco manufacturer and is well impressed with Oakland's future.

Army will be relieved of these two important items. As the date for the encampment is now less than three weeks away, activity will soon commence in a more material manner.

THUG'S DOUBLE IS CAUGHT IN BURGLARY EFFORT

James Dowdel Interrupted by Police Just After He Breaks Window.

WAS ONCE CONVICTED
AS LELAND'S ASSAILANT

Sentenced to Fifty Years and Later Released When the Others Confess Crime.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The wave of pity which swept over this community for James Dowdel, who was sentenced by Judge Cook to fifty years in the state penitentiary for holding up Dr. T. B. Leland, and later released when Siemsen and Dabner, the gas pipe thugs, confessed to the crime, will give place to another feeling when it is known that Dowdel was arrested this morning, caught by the police in the very act of committing burglary, his hands torn and bleeding from his attempt to smash a plate glass window.

Dowdel is a former convict, having served a term for burglary, and it was this fact and his startling resemblance to one of the gas pipe thugs who robbed him on Vallejo street near Octavia, that led Coroner Leland to swear to his identification when he was arrested, and later to stand by and see him sent for a term that meant life at hard labor in prison.

CONFESSION TO THE CRIME.
After his arrest for murder, Siemsen and Dabner confessed to the crime for which Dowdel had paid the penalty, and immediately thereafter a feeling for this victim of circumstances who had thus been sent to jail innocent of the crime of which he had been accused.

His aged mother never got over the shock of his sentence, and his subsequent actions when he returned to his home did not tend to alleviate her sufferings, and she died two months ago.

This morning Policeman Reade was standing at Powell and Geary streets, while Special Officer W. Metzger of the Pinkerton Patrol was at Geary and Kearny streets. A crash of glass resounded through the clear early morning air, and as both policemen ran in the direction of the sound they found Dowdel, his hands just pulling a fur from the store of Lewis Gassner, 115 Geary street. His hands were covered with blood, and he was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital for treatment, and later transferred to the city prison and locked for attempt to commit burglary.

"I was hungry and I didn't have a five cent piece," said Dowdel, as he sat in a cell in the city prison this morning. "I wanted some money and I saw the chance to break the window, so I did it."

Conboy Case Goes
To the Jury Today

Accused Man's Attorney Argued That Death Shot Was Fired in Pure Self-Defense.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—For the second time within two months the fate of former Captain of Police Michael J. Conboy, who shot and killed Bernard Fagan, will be placed in the hands of a jury today. Judge Robert Fernal, for the defendant, occupied the entire morning, arguing that Conboy shot in self-defense, and praying that if he were guilty of anything he could only be held for manslaughter.

This afternoon District Attorney Finkert made the closing argument for the prosecution. Judge Dunn is expected to give his instructions to the jury at 4 o'clock.

Look Who's Coming! 'NOODLES' FAGAN, THE KING OF THE NEWSBOYS Guest of The Tribune

FREE! FREE! FREE!

Cut out this coupon—Present at the Bell Theater, Saturday morning, April 9th, at 10 o'clock.

Through the courtesy of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, "Noodles" Fagan, the newsboy orator of New York, will deliver an address on "Life in the Slums of New York and Travels of the World," with moving pictures.

Admit one at the Bell Theater, Saturday morning.

FREE! FREE! FREE!

"Noodles" Fagan, world famed newsboy, will arrive in Oakland Sunday, the guest of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE. He is to be here one week and during that time the "newsies," every one of whom are his friends and willing subjects to be fed and feasted on the subject of his travels and generally entertained, and all by one of their own kind.

Twenty-six years old and acclaimed the most traveled man of his generation, "Noodles" Fagan, in a career which began in the lowest dens of vice in New York, has thrice circled the globe, visiting kings and stopping at Japan, Italy, India, Canada, England, Nova Scotia, South America, Yucatan, Mexico, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Germany, Holland, Belgium, France, Spain, China, Jamaica, Martinique, Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines.

TALKS TO CHILDREN.
As a lecturer he has appeared on the platform of leading churches and Y. M. C. A. halls all over the world, frequently being called upon to deliver his lecture to school children. He has spoken in all the churches in the principal cities of the country. He carries letters from Martin, Brubagh, Dr. Maxwell, Judge Lindsey and leading instructors of America.

Altogether he is a remarkable young man. When a boy his bed was often a dry goods box. His meals were picked up in the toughest sections of New York. A nickel looked bigger in those days than a $10 bill does now. "Noodles" owns houses and lots. He has been the guest of kings and queens. President Roosevelt has given him a letter of commendation. He has won the Pulitzer prize for his book, "The Newsboy's Story." He has been the guest of the world over, and he has made it famous around the world. The newsies idolize him. Prominent instructors the world over endorse him. He has been the guest of the leading newspapers of the entire world. The good that "Noodles" has done and is doing will never be effaced.

BORN ON THE BOWERY.

"Noodles" was born on the Bowery when that street was far different than it is today. In the early days of the champion newsboy the Bowery was the home of dance halls and the resort of gamblers. It was a den of vice. "Noodles" grew up and learned the ways of the street. He saw the evil that existed. He resolved to avoid the pitfalls which surrounded him. Bread and butter, or whatever he could get to eat, occupied his time. The proceeds of his paper business furnished the bare necessities of life. Until he reached young manhood "Noodles" could not read or write but in the vernacular of the street he "made good."

Today "Noodles" owns three newspapers in Greater New York, where there are sold an average of 43,000 papers daily. Sometimes as many as 75,000 are sold in a day, but in a year, one stand takes 365 days in a year. One stand takes the corner of Fourteenth street and Third avenue; another is at the New York end of the Brooklyn bridge, and the third is at Fulton street in Brooklyn. Fifteen boys are employed with "Noodles." McCarthy is superintendent. "Noodles" owns considerable real estate. He derives a large income in vaudeville, and his success is due to a very simple but effective formula—25 per cent ability and 75 per cent steam.

WILL APPEAR AT BELL.

During his week here "Noodles" will appear at the Bell Theater, where he will give a moving picture show of his life. He sings Italian, Irish and ragtime songs as only a "newsie" can, and his imitations of Henry Miller, Fuller, Olden, George Cohan, Bert McInelly, David Warfield, Marshall P. Wilder and others have been approved by the originals.

show Warble, sparrow monkey contests, rapid fire boxing, wrestling contests, marathons, etc., will occur in quick succession. Prizes will be given.

THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE has arranged for newsboys night at the Bell Theater Thursday evening, when every lad on the streets will be admitted free to the second show.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

On Saturday morning next, at 10 o'clock, he will deliver an illustrated lecture at the Bell Theater for the benefit of the children of Oakland. Clip the coupon printed above. It will admit any one to the Bell Theater free of charge to see "Noodles" on the stage.

Fagan has made three trips around the world. The first he began in 1893, going first to Paris on route to Madrid with a message to King Alfonso from the newsboys of New York City. He visited the principal cities of England, Ireland and Wales, selling papers in each. He showed the newsies in Paris how to sell their papers, and the King de Boulogne and the Change de Elysee. He yelied the extras of the French capital in the Latin quarter. He shouted of Berlin papers almost under Emperor William's ears, and was received by every European monarch whose country he visited. King Edward, Emperor William and the French president were glad to grasp the hand of the boy who had the grit to start on a world-girdling trip and earn his way by selling newspapers.

LIKES KING ALFONSO.

"Noodles" delivered his message in due time to King Alfonso, and received a royal reception. In speaking of the Spanish monarch, the newsboy said: "He is to me the best of all the crowned heads of Europe. Why? Because he meets every one of his subjects on the same plane. The poor man looks just as good to Alfonso as the rich man. There's no red tape to him. If he was here he'd be looking at the 'Hello, Bill' society. I've seen him in Madrid and in Barcelona, and he would greet his subjects in the same friendly manner. He speaks good English, and when I met him the second time, there was no knowing him. It was just 'Hello, Noodles.' Can you blame me for liking Alfonso?"

WENT TO SOUTH AFRICA.

Three years after his first trip the wandering king called "Noodles" and he determined on a second world's tour. This time he took a message to Com Paul Kruger in South Africa from the newsboys of Philadelphia.

During his career as a newsboy "Noodles" has sold papers in nearly every corner of the globe, and when he is at home in New York spends most of his time doing something for the poor people in the great Ghetto, where there are thousands of suffering children.

"Noodles" carried letters of commendation from the leading Jewish ministers and statesmen, including the Hon. Oscar Straus, Jacob Schiff, Dr. Leonard Levi of Pittsburgh, the late Dr. Herschel of Chicago, the late Dr. Isaac Wyses of Cincinnati and hundreds of others for his untiring work among the poor children of the great Ghetto of New York. He has fed thousands. Many of the little Jewish newsboys got their start under "Noodles" tuition.

AIDED KISHINEFF VICTIMS.

He has sold thousands of papers and turned the proceeds over to the Jewish benevolent associations, to be sent to the unfortunate Jewish children who suffered through the massacre of Kishineff. In New York for the past ten years on Christmas day "Noodles" has been the superintendent of the big Christmas dinner given to the poor along the Bowery, in which the late "Little Tim" Sullivan met the financial end. Little Tim always said about a week before Christmas: "Give little Fagan the money and he will get up the dinner and there will be no favorites played; all the poor boys on the Bowery will receive fair play, no matter what nationality." Hundreds of New York youths owe their start to the boy whom Richard Croker gave the nickname of "Noodles"—Lawrence Clinton Fagan.

MISS SEARS QUITS AND FORFEITS $200

Society Woman Abandons
Effort to Walk to Del Monte.

MADE RECORD TIME
DURING FIRST RELAY

Miss Jennie Crocker Wins
Wager as Result of Athlete's Failure.

GILROY, Cal., April 1.—Miss Eleanor Sears, who started yesterday morning to walk from Burlingame to Del Monte, has abandoned the effort to cover the distance of 100 miles on foot and started on her return home from this place, which she reached at an early hour this morning.

Miss Sears made the start from Burlingame at six a. m. yesterday, guided by the light of attendant automobiles and swinging lanterns carried by relays of devoted friends. She traveled steadily with short rests for food and refreshments, her record being somewhat slower than that made recently by Dr. McEnery, the English champion, who completed the disputed distance in 36 hours and 45 minutes.

MISS CROCKER ATTENDS.

The young pedestrian was attired in a soft green felt hat, a short brown skirt and jacket, heavy gray stockings and walking shoes. She was accompanied by Miss Jennie Crocker, with whom she made the $200 wager that she could cover the distance, the afore said young woman being mounted on a bicycle and attired in a red suit which will enable her to stay with Miss Sears until the end. With the feminine athlete also were Templeton Crocker, Miss Laurence Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Carolan, Billy Coleman, Duane Hopkins, Mrs. Eugene Murphy and several other prominent men and women of society Burlingame.

When Miss Sears arrived at San Jose yesterday a stop was made at the Lamolite, at Santa Clara avenue and San Pedro streets from 3:40 p. m. until 4:57 p. m. Luncheon eaten, the pedestrians massaged and a period of absolute rest was enjoyed.

RENEWED VIGOR.

The start was made with renewed vigor and when the setting sun took its last view of the contest Miss Sears was at Edenvale, six miles from San Jose, at 5:30 o'clock. Her time at Coyote was 3 hours and 25 minutes behind that of Doctor McEnery, who arrived at the mile post at 6:30 p. m. Miss Sears got here at 8:25, but started from Burlingame at 6 a. m., while McEnery and Selby started at 5:30 a. m.

Miss Eleanor Sears is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Sears, a millionaire couple who maintain a summer home at Beverly farms, Mass., and a city house in Boston back bay. Her father is heavily interested in Calumet and Hecla and other copper stocks and is in several of the leading railroads of the country.

From one end of the social world of the United States to another she has been noted for her athletic proclivities.

Five Street Cars
Dynamited by Mob

Philadelphia Police Refuse Permit for Women Sympathizers to Strike.

PHILADELPHIA, April 1.—Five street cars were dynamited in this city last night and early today. No one was injured. The company has offered a reward of $500.

John Mitchell, accompanied by Dennis Hayes, fourth vice-president of the American Federation, went to New York today. It is rumored a meeting of labor leaders may be held there today and another effort made to settle the street car strike.

The police department has refused a permit for the parade of women sympathizers of the strikers Saturday, but preparations for the march are being made.

1000 Painters Walk
Out in Windy City

CHICAGO, April 1.—One thousand painters and decorators who demand a wage increase of five cents an hour went on strike here today. Although a number of contractors signed the new scale yesterday, it is feared that by night four thousand men may be out. There is also danger of a sympathetic strike.

FIGHT STARTED BY ATTORNEY IN PINCHOT HEARING

Brandeis Takes Exception to Criticism of Chairman
Nelson.

REPRESENTATIVES BACK
LAWYER IN CONTENTION

Demand Withdrawal of Charge
That Anything Had Been Concealed.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Ballinger-Pinchot hearing went on today with Secretary Ballinger's counsel in charge of the presentation of evidence.

Elmer E. Todd, United States district attorney at Seattle, the first witness, contradicted certain statements made by Special agent H. T. Jones, testifying for Louis R. Glavis. He said Jones' statement that he had advised against criminal action in the Alaska cases because Judge Hanford was constitutionally opposed to land fraud trials generally was absolutely false.

Mr. Vortress asked Mr. Todd if he had been consulted some time ago regarding a possible prosecution against Glavis for letters missing from his office when he turned it over to his successor Christensen. It is claimed the letters afterwards were found in a box belonging to Glavis.

SAID LETTERS WERE MISSING.

Mr. Todd said Christensen complained to him in December that the letters were missing. About this time copies of these missing letters began to appear in a weekly paper with the announcement that more were to follow.

During his cross-examination Attorney Brandeis showed him some of Jones' daily reports, one of which said he had conferred with Todd in regard to criminal prosecution in the Christopher group.

The cross examination as to a letter Glavis had written to the department at Washington urging criminal proceedings resulted in a quarrel which lasted nearly an hour and brought out a new strength of the partisan feeling which has grown up.

READ COPY OF LETTER.

Attorney Brandeis read a copy of the Glavis letter which he said had come from the files of the forestry service.

"But that letter was never sent," commented Mr. Todd.

Chairman Nelson asked Mr. Brandeis if there was anything to show that the letter had been sent.

"There is no direct evidence," replied the attorney.

"But it is the letter Glavis testified he never sent," persisted the chairman.

Attorney Vortress read the Glavis testimony in which Glavis said he did not send the letter because he heard Commissioner Dennett of the land office was coming to Seattle and he could talk it over with him.

"You knew that," said chairman Nelson to Mr. Brandeis. "Why did you not tell the committee?"

"Mr. Chairman," shouted the attorney in a voice which could be heard down the corridors, "I object strenuously to the statement that I have attempted to conceal anything."

Representative Graham (Dem.)—"I must move that the chairman be directed to withdraw that remark."

Representative James—"I second the motion."

TRIES SUICIDE TWICE AFTER TIFF WITH LOVER

Pretty Girl Swallows Lysol
When Sweetheart Refuses to Speak.

LIFE SAVED, BUT SHE MAKES ATTEMPT AGAIN

Refuses Promise to Keep Feet
Out of Grave in the Future.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—A trivial quarrel with her sweetheart, a few angry words, a tiff and a refusal of one to speak to the other, were responsible for two attempts at suicide on the part of pretty Fannie Pringle, 24 years old, which sent the ambulance on two hurry calls to her home, 832 Turk street, in the dead of night.

According to Miss Pringle's story, which she told with difficulty, after recovering consciousness, this morning, she has a friend, James Martin, a clerk for Wells, Fargo & Company, who has been paying her attention. Last night he called upon her, and in the dispute which followed he refused to speak to her, leaving without a word. She cried for a long time, and finally, at 11 o'clock, swallowed half of a vial of lysol.

A friend found her and summoned policeman Sella. An ambulance was sent for and Dr. Patek at the Central Emergency hospital applied the stomach pump and restored her. She declared herself well enough to go home, and as she lives but a block, she was allowed to leave.

TRIES AGAIN.

Three hours later another call came in from the same house, and once more the ambulance made the short trip. This time, in a more serious condition, Miss Pringle, who had swallowed the rest of the lysol on her return to her room, was rushed to the operating table. Dr. Miller worked over her for some time and again her life was saved. She was held and placed under the watchful eye of Miss Ida Currier, nurse on duty in the female ward.

This morning Miss Pringle declared she didn't know whether she was glad or sorry that she was alive and she wouldn't promise whether or not she would do it again, saying one moment that she was happy to be feeling so well, and the next that she was in the depths of despair.

NEW RULING ON INHERITANCE TAX

Supreme Court Holds That Homestead and Family Allowance Are Exempt.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—After years of litigation and argument on the part of counsel in various cases, the Supreme Court this morning in a test action brought before it, decided that the homestead and family allowance are exempt from the inheritance tax. The test as made in the case of John F. Kennedy and the matter has been before the higher court for a good many months.

COURT'S DECISION.

The decision, which is rather technical, holds in brief that the homestead itself and the family allowances granted by the estate tax, including Chief Justice Brady and Justices Henshaw, Shaw, Melvin, Lorigan and Sloss.

Saloon Man Gets
Habeas Corpus Writ

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—In the District Court of Appeals this morning, J. Burke, accused of violating the law which prohibits the sale of liquor within a certain distance of Stanford University, was granted a writ of habeas corpus returnable April 25, and the matter will thus be argued in detail at that time.

Burke runs a saloon at Menlo Park, and has been released on $100 bail. His attorneys are Thomas, Gerstle, Frick and Seedy.

STRIKERS RIOT AND ONE IS FATALLY SHOT

Ship Scalers Attack Foreman and He Uses Revolver on Them.

POLICE ARRIVE IN TIME TO STOP MORE BLOODSHED

Union Men Tell Different Story as to Origin of the Disturbance.

Fatally injured:
ANTONIO SERROCHE.
Arrested:
DANIEL MARTIN, charge
assault to murder.
JOSEPH LOPEZ, assault with a deadly weapon.
ANTONIO SARCOP, assault with a deadly weapon.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—As the culmination of a labor dispute among the members of the Ship Scalers' Union, which has been characterized by the bitterest fight on both sides, and which has led to more than one threatening act, there was a serious riot, resulting in bloodshed, the fatally injured of one man and the arrest of three others at 7 o'clock this morning.

The entire Potrero section of the city where the trouble occurred was stirred up into a frenzy of excitement by the yell and shouts of the strikers and three hundred policemen, braving almost a hundred rioters, quelled the disturbance, arrested a trio of the offenders and took them safely to the police station, although beset on all sides by rocks and missiles thrown at them.

The members of the ship scalers union have been on strike since early last month, and Daniel Martin, former contractor for the Union Oil company has been hiring non-union men and putting them to work at Hunters Point.

ONE FATALLY WOUNDED.

In consequence there has been a feeling of animosity between the strikers and the exact incidents leading up to this morning's disturbance differ materially, the fact remains that Antonio Serroche, 36 years old, residing at 1119 Greenwich street, was probably fatally injured at the Central Emergency hospital with a bullet in his left groin, while Martin is charged at the Central Station with assault to murder, and Joseph Lopez and Antonio Sarcop are both accused of assault with a deadly weapon.

There were between fifty and seventy-five men at the corner of Potrero and First avenue at 7 o'clock this morning when Martin past. According to his version of the affair he was set upon by some of them who began to punch him.

In a moment several rocks were hurled from the crowd, and fearing personal injury and perhaps death, he drew a revolver from his pocket and emptied it into the crowd. Fortunately but one bullet took effect and Serroche dropped groaning to the pavement. His fall was the signal for a renewed hurling of rocks, but someone had notified Lieutenant Perrin and officers Gaston and Clancy, with drawn clubs ran to the scene.

At sight of them the mob halted and yelled, and cries of for vengeance against the plucky wielder were heard on all sides. In a moment there was a short battle while the officers beat back the crowd, summoned an ambulance for Serroche and placed Martin under arrest. It was then that a more serious riot was broken up and Lopez and Sarcop were also taken into custody.

In the midst of the melee a number of the rocks struck bystanders and participants in the affray, inflicting flesh wounds on the face and hands. Most of them left for their homes without reporting to the police.

After Serroche had been taken to the Central Emergency hospital he gave his story of the shooting, which differed considerably from the tale told by Martin. He declared that Jose Calvo of 224 Third street, stepped from the crowd and asked between the men could not be peacefully adjusted.

MAN GETS NERVOUS.

The number of men pressing up against Martin made the latter nervous and he drew his revolver and

HEN RAISING MOST PROFITABLE OF INDUSTRIES

Speakers Dwell Upon the Artificial Methods of Hatching Fowls.

OCCUPATION FIT FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Demand for Eggs and Birds Far Exceeds Present Supply.

"The Incubation and Brooding of Chickens" was the subject of discussion at Wednesday night's meeting of the Alameda County Poultry Association, which met at the rooms of the Polytechnic Business College for the discussion of chicken raising. The speaker of the evening, Stanley Wilkins, of the State Experimental Farm, was unable, on account of other business, to be present at the session, and on this account F. B. Van Nostrand and A. H. Gregory, prominent poultry men of this county and members of the association, were called on to discuss the use of incubators.

"The incubator has come to stay in the poultry industry," said Van Nostrand, "and it has proven itself a success. It will soon be as necessary on our small farms as is the plough or other agricultural instrument, partly because of its efficiency in the raising of poultry, and partly because it can be handled by woman, child, or cripple, with the greatest ease. Another reason for its use is the fact that the poultry supply can not exceed the demand, as the greater the supply, and the cheaper poultry becomes, the greater the demand will be."

HEALTHY HENS NECESSARY.

"In considering incubation we must first consider the egg. This must be fertile in order to produce results, and in order to be fertile it must have been laid by a healthy hen. The egg must be unhatched, and in this case will produce a weak chicken, which probably will not live. Hens must have good food and fresh air in order to produce good eggs.

"The natural period of incubation is 21 days, although under certain conditions 20 days, and in winter, 22 days, will elapse before eggs are properly hatched. These fluctuations in the time of hatching take place when the eggs are hatched by a hen; when hatched by an incubator 21 days is the time which never fluctuates. Incubators must be fumigated before each hatch, and the lamps must be in good order so that the eggs will not get too hot and thus allow the germs to die. After the eggs once start to hatch they give off a certain heat of their own, and at this time the thermometer in the machine must be watched lest the eggs become overheated and cook. The best way to regulate the incubator's heat is by the wick and not the regulator of the machine.

TURNING EGGS.

"After the third day of incubation the eggs should be turned, and after this turned about three times a day until about hatched. Whether or not an egg will hatch can be ascertained after 3 hours in the incubator, and the signs of hatching are plainly discernible after the fifth day of incubation. On the tenth day of hatching feathers begin to form in the embryonic chick, and by the nineteenth day the bird begins to breathe. The cries of the chick can be heard on the twentieth day, and on the twenty-first the bird begins to pick its way through the shell of the egg."

STANDARD INCUBATORS.

"I can not too strongly emphasize the advisability of obtaining a standard make of machine for the poultry business," said A. H. Gregory, the second speaker of the evening. The cheap machines advertised by some firms are but of little use, and by spoiling a setting of eggs once or twice a season lose the poultry man more than he would have paid for a good machine. Personally I prefer to work with a hot water incubator, although many use the hot air machine. A dark brooder also seems to me to be the most successful, and I believe sand should be strewn on the bottom of the brooder, to protect the chicks from the cold.

KILL MALE CHICKS.

"I find it cheaper to kill the male birds of the light varieties, such as the Plymouth Rocks, rather than raise them, as they can not be made to pay. The heavy grades, such as the Buff Orpingtons, or Leghorns, may, capitalized, be a paying proposition, but on the lighter grades, used as pullets, money is lost by Alameda poultry men. The chicks raised in the brooder should be fed with fine cut grain."

The meeting was presided over by C. D. Postal, president of the association, and after the lectures routine business was transacted. The association met again in two weeks to discuss the feeding and marketing of poultry in this county. The speakers for this occasion will be announced by Secretary E. K. Healy of the association next week.

UNION WITHDRAWS FROM CONFERENCE

Typographical Body Will Send No More Delegates to Charter Meetings.

Following the suggestion of the Joint Union Labor Charter Conference, the typographical union, at Wednesday night's meeting voted to withdraw its delegates from all charter conferences other than that of the union men, until such time as the labor conference will be able to vote at the Greater Oakland convention as a body. This action, suggested by the union conference at its last meeting, was taken at the discretion of the union itself. The Central Labor Council, which was asked by the union conference to request the withdrawal of the delegates, refusing to make the request, and leaving the matter to be decided by the unions sending the delegates. The action of the Typographical Union, known among labor men as the oldest and most stable of all the unions in existence, will probably result in all other unions now sending delegates to the Greater Oakland convention, in taking the same action. The union men believe that if their projects are first threshed out among themselves, and later presented to other conventions with the solid backing of the organized labor, the results will be more effective, and on this ground the Building Trades Council, at their last meeting, asked that the Central Council act in the matter of withdrawing the delegates of its affiliated unions. The Central Union, believing that this matter was beyond its province, refused to make any recommendation, suggesting only that all unions attend the labor conference, but leaving the attendance of de-

UNITARIAN OFFICER GUEST OF HONOR

Corresponding Secretary of Alliance Lectures at Meeting of Local Order.

Mrs. Robert H. Davis, corresponding secretary of the National Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women, was the guest of honor at a reception given yesterday afternoon by the Women's Alliance of the First Unitarian Church of this city, in Wendt Hall, Fourteenth and Castro streets. In the course of the afternoon reports were read showing the growth and status of the local organization, which has a membership enrollment of sixty-two. Miss K. Van Harlingen, acting president of the Alliance, presided over the meeting, which was addressed by Mrs. Davis, who recently arrived from Boston, the headquarters of the National Alliance. During her brief sojourn in California Mrs. Davis will visit the different Unitarian Church Alliances on the Pacific Coast and the northwestern states, where she is well-known among Unitarian church workers. In all the Alliance societies which she has visited she has received a hearty welcome and has been feted extensively on the Coast. Legates at others at the discretion of the unions as individual bodies. The Joint Labor Charter Conference, which planned to hold a meeting at Carpenters Hall Wednesday night, postponed the meeting two weeks on account of the absence on business of President B. M. Hamb of that body and the illness of Secretary F. H. Pratt. The meeting will take place a week from next Wednesday night at the Building Trades headquarters.

Good Work of the Grand Jury.

The Grand Jury that has just closed its labors and been discharged is to be commended for the thoroughness and impartiality with which it did its work. Every department of the county government was exhaustively inquired into and intelligent, dispassionate study given to the correction of errors of administration and the remedy of abuses. Conscientious efforts were made to get at the facts and draw wise conclusions, eliminating personal and political considerations from the inquiry and the deductions submitted therefrom.

The character of the work performed by the late Grand Jury is beneficial in many ways. It has a wholesome effect both on the public mind and the officers charged with the administration of public affairs, being reassuring to the former and disciplinary to the latter. Actual conditions have been ascertained by diligent and painstaking inquiry, and all expenditures of public money subjected to microscopic scrutiny. The result of these investigations are set forth concisely and intelligently in a report that is replete with sound suggestions.

Grand juries so often do more or less than their duty, or go off on tangents, or stamp their work with partisan feeling and special purpose, that the work of the body just discharged stands out in shining contrast. No duty was shirked, but the standpoint of good morals, sound business policy, perfect fairness and a sincere desire to serve the public interests was never departed from. The jury went at its work determined to get at the truth and form just conclusions. It has done both to a reasonable certainty. That is all that a Grand Jury is expected to do, all the law creates it do, and by doing the full measure of their duty honestly and fairly Foreman Poirier and his colleagues have merited the warm approval of every good citizen. Not every conclusion drawn by the jury can be accepted as a finality, but all are entitled to respect as the collective opinions of sincere, intelligent men who have striven to do what is best for the community.

It is hardly necessary to say that an arduous public service rendered with high-minded purpose merits the thanks and approval of the taxpayers.

"Big Jim" Gallagher has been heard from in Germany, but he cannot be suspected of seeking an interview with Roosevelt.

Getting the Wires Crossed.

Hon. Hiram Windham Johnson, who is seeking the Republican nomination for Governor on a Democratic platform, says the Republican majority in Congress is steeped in sin and covenanting with the devil—in other words, the corporations. He declares that Uncle Joe Cannon is a man of Belial and those who support him in the House as children of darkness who ought to be chastised and driven out of public life.

The Hon. Sylvester Castoria Smith of Kern county, who has voted with Uncle Joe from start to finish and who is one of the bright young men Mr. Cannon has placed on the new rules committee, declares in his journal of civilization, the Bakersfield Echo, that Mr. Johnson is the man for Governor. While Mr. Smith is standing pat in Washington his newspaper is encouraging insurgency in California and commending to the electorate a candidate who has repudiated President Taft and the Republican majority in Congress of which Mr. Smith is himself a shining light.

Which shall we follow, the example of Mr. Smith in Washington or the advice of his newspaper in California? Is the attitude of the Bakersfield Echo to be taken as a tacit confession by Mr. Smith that he is enrolled in the ranks of the wicked in Washington? If Mr. Smith is pursuing the right course in Congress Mr. Johnson is maligning him and his associates and unjustly calumniating the Republican party. Mr. Johnson's success at the polls will be a repudiation of the Republican National and State administrations and of the Republican majority in both branches of Congress. Hence it is singular that Mr. Smith's organ of public opinion should be supporting his candidacy. Politics does indeed make strange bedfellows.

A rather curious situation is developed by the bribery scandal in the New York Senate. Senator Conger, the accuser, and Senator Aldis, the accused, are both Republicans, while the lawyers prosecuting and defending are both Democrats and leaders in Democratic politics. Senator Conger's brother, now deceased, profited directly from the alleged bribery of Aldis and his associates, and Conger himself admits that he was privy to the bribery at the time and held his peace. He never said anything about the matter till Aldis was elected president pro tem of the Senate despite Conger's wishes. Martin W. Littleton, the Tammany orator who placed Alton B. Parker in nomination at St. Louis, is defending Aldis, while James W. Osborne, a leader of the up-state Democracy, is prosecuting Conger's charges and incidentally defending him from counter-attacks. It is a case of two Democrats tearing at the Republican factions from opposite directions. However, the disclosures so far made are far from creditable to either Aldis or Conger, and have started a tremendous internal row in the Republican party.

Broadway is again being torn up by a corporation which is laying wires for light and power purposes. The public is willing to submit to the inconvenience caused, but the manner in which the street is repaired is apt to be scrutinized closely. In the past too much indulgence has been accorded to corporations who tear up the streets for their own profit. They have been permitted to make repairs in any old way and often to neglect them for an unreasonable period. The public is tired of slipshod repairing which increases the cost of street maintenance, and of being put to unnecessary inconvenience. Street buttchery should not be permitted in future.

John Redmond's sagacity in declining a place in the Liberal cabinet either for himself or any member of the Irish Nationalist party now stands clearly vindicated. With a word he can topple over the Asquith ministry, and on the other hand the Conservatives are so sensible of his power that they dare not offend him, nor are they strongly antagonizing measures for the relief of Ireland. Mr. Redmond could have had a portfolio in the ministry of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and again when the death of that statesman made Asquith Premier. But the Irish leader held steadily aloof from all governmental responsibility. He took the position formerly assumed by Parnell that the mission of the Nationalist members was to get concessions for Ireland from either or both the English parties; to take advantage of every dilemma or division to press measures for the benefit of the Irish people. His leadership has been wonderfully successful and has held true to its purpose for many years.

Timely and Interesting Topics

A merchant of Ottawa has a unique barometer. It is a domesticated fox squirrel. He keeps the little pet in a big paint barrel, all inclosed, with the exception of a small round hole for a door in one end. Inside the barrel is a good supply of straw, old paper and leaves. During a run of weather of any kind, hot, cold, wet or dry, the little animal is in and out of his house, keeping an open door. But should there be a change coming, say twelve or twenty-four hours off, he plugs up that hole with the stuff from his bed and keeps it closed until the change comes. "He never makes mistakes," says his owner. "There are no false alarms with him."

It is apparent from what Dr. C. J. White, dermatologist at the Massachusetts General Hospital, says that women must either cut down the number of auto trips or run the awful chances of becoming bald. The noted authority says motoring is bad for the hair.

"Usually women neglect to properly cover their heads, with the result that they are compelled to take too many shampoos," Dr. White said today. "Washing the hair and scalp once a month is often enough for a skin which is normal. A shampoo every other day or so, or even once a week will produce baldness, and after a person reaches 25 or 30 years of age it is impossible to cure abnormal falling out of the hair."

The problem is that if women want to go motoring they must completely cover the hair, but that keeps out the air and produces baldness if they neglect the hair to get on the scalp and then submit to the wicked shampoo they will also lose their hair. The only safe way is to reduce the number of auto trips.

An interesting clothing fun in New York has brought out a little booklet with a list of good places to buy and these words printed thereon: "A piece of the North Pole and the absolute facts as to who first reached the frozen goal." The joke is that the inside pages of the booklet are blank.

Pullman cars have taken the place of the "prairie schooner" in this section of the country at least. No longer is seen the little white or dingy canvas-covered wagon toiling over the boundless prairie, most often to an unknown destination, containing a shag-headed, determined man and his family, with a gun and a faithful family watchdog, or perhaps several of them, and a few dollars in the man's pocket or more often only a supply of "grub" and a few farm utensils.

Told About People

Bishop H. W. Lompton of the Louisiana conference of the African M. E. Church is the idol of his people, but he never misses an opportunity to give them sound advice. At a recent meeting in New Orleans he said: "I believe that there is a future for my people, but it must be through separation along social lines. I do not seek admission into the parlor of any white man, nor do I invite him into my parlor in a social way. I want only for my people protection under the law, and we will make our own social circles, will entertain our own men and women, will build up our race. But let me remind you that there is much you can do. You must stop throwing away so much money on a good time and invest more in land. Every negro should have a family and should own his own home."

David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer of Great Britain, was described in a French newspaper as the "telling Apache of the British crisis." This is one of the quainter paragraphs in Figure of Paris. "The eye of Lloyd-George shoots out flames. It is with the innate majesty of a king of speech that he treads the platform, roaring, stamping, yes, howling, while he shakes the mass of his long, black hair."

M. Francois Perle of France, poet, novelist and bibliographer, recently issued a volume of essays written in his ninety-fifth year. The same country can boast of the oldest editor in the world in the person of M. de Molinari, who, despite the burden of 91 years, conducts the Journal des Economistes, and writes largely for its pages.

Writing of street life in Paris, Wilhelm Feldmann says in the Welt Spiegel that the unique features are the gymnastic and acrobatic performances which one sees there. Wherever traffic will permit one may expect to see the street acrobats, men, women and children, spread their carpet, erect their apparatus and, to the accompaniment of a few instruments, sometimes only a drum, give their performances. Feats of strength, balancing and pyramid building are performed and then one of the youngsters in tight, collects the coppers from the crowd which usually congregates. This done, the performers throw long cloaks over their thighs and move on with their wagon to the next halting place.

Judge James P. Belford, formerly of the Supreme Court of Colorado, whose death occurred January 7, is mourned as the last of the "Old Guard" which has survived that state's earlier days. As a campaigner for a judge and a statesman he was a remarkably brilliant and well-rounded man. That he was not wanting in courage is illustrated by the following anecdote told by Judge E. T. Wells, his colleague on the Territorial Supreme Bench.

"He was a man of nerve, who would take a chance with his life in following out a course he believed to be right.

"I saw him sitting on the bench in a law suit at Georgetown with a double-barreled shotgun across his knees. I forgot the title of the case now, but it was one involving large interests in a wealthy mine of the district. Both sides had engaged the services of noted gun men to make a demonstration in the town and later in his court room. Judge Belford had given a great deal of study and deliberation to the issues raised and he was satisfied of the soundness of his decision.

"It had got noised around that on that particular day he would read his decision, and the little courtroom was packed with partisans of the litigants. Belford took his place on the bench, adjusted the shotgun on his knees, unfolded his manuscript and began to read. His judgment was entered on the record, court adjourned, and there was no bloodshed, but before he entered the room he did not know but that they would carry him out feet first."

Hard to Believe This of Radium

In a recent lecture Sir William Rumsey answered, or at least gave an answer, to the question, How long will a given quantity of radium last? In other words, When will a substance which is constantly emitting minute particles of matter be entirely changed into the products of its decomposition? His reply to the first question was "never," and to the second, "forever."

Than Sir William, of course, there

Scripture for the Suffragettes

A Bible class for society women, it is announced, has been encouraged by equal rights leaders "as an antidote for suffrage excitement." After what fashion the suffragists shall quote the Scriptures against the suffragettes may become an interesting question.

Neither the times nor the midst of agitators would be found in accord today with Paul's "Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection," nor with the same disciplinarian's resolve to "suffer not a woman to teach."

Solomon would serve better than Paul for modern instruction. It is true still that "A foolish woman is clamorous." Also it is measurably true that "It is better to dwell in the wilderness than with a contentious and an angry woman." Yet the application to the suffrage issue even of these bits of admonitory thought would be forced.

We fear that circumstance and opinion in the equal-rights matter will lead to the missing of the really golden text for the occasion. It is again Solomon's, and this is it:

"Every wise woman buildeth her house; but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands."

This Scriptural blade is double-edged. It will slash conservative suffragists and radical alike. We urge it for careful consideration none the less. Will a wise woman pluck down a house of majesty in which she is throne mate and matron, to replace it with a co-educational school of practical politics?—New York World.

would take place at the end of eternity—that is, the process would go on forever. It was exactly the same with radium, he said. Experiment had proved that at the end of 1,000 years just half any given quantity of it would have been dissipated, but the remaining half would be only half gone at the end of the next 1,000 years, and the vanishing point would never be reached, since there would be no end to the division. This reminds one of the old, old problem as to when a dog would overtake a hare if in each of successive periods of time the larger animal gained half the difference that separated him from the smaller at the beginning of the chase. Mathematicians laugh at the sophistry which "demonstrates" that the capture would never be effected, and agree with common sense and experience in declaring that the hare would surely be overtaken unless his "start" were as long as infinity. The store either of matter or of energy in a gram or ounce or pound of radium cannot be infinite, and therefore it cannot take an infinite time to exhaust it by a constant drain by no means infinitely small. Sir William, however, was addressing a popular audience, not one of scientists, and he only took a picturesque way of telling his hearers that the emanations from radium are in constant proportion to the mass.—New York Times.

Burglar Fires Fatal Shots on His Discovery in Spring-field Home.

MAUD ALLAN SUEED FOR ALLEGED ATTACK

Mother Wants $25,000 for the Heart Taken From the Body of Son.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 1.—Miss Martha B. Blackstone, 23 Elliott street, daughter of J. C. Blackstone, was murdered by a masked burglar in the home of Mrs. Sarah Harriet Dow, daughter of the house, was shot in the head and re- moved to Springfield Hospital, dying. The murderer escaped.

The police have no description of the man except the one Mrs. Dow and her daughter Lucy were able to give. The police say in a general way the crime resembles those of the man who terror- ized the city last fall.

Both Miss Blackstone and Miss Dow were teachers in the public schools. Miss Blackstone was 24 years old and Miss Dow about 20.

Maud Allan Sued

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 1.—A dam- age suit for $25,000, a civil suit for $25,000 and the inconvenience of being disturbed from slumber by a deputy sheriff at 4:30 o'clock in the morning, to say nothing of having a tude of officers search one's bag- gage, were a few of the annoyances be- lieved upon Maud Allan yesterday. Miss Allan's busy day was occasioned by one Julia Summont, a maid whom the actress picked up in London.

The maid said Miss Allan slapped her soundly on the face several times. Miss Allan says she merely reprimanded the maid.

The sheriff attached Miss Allan's trunks to satisfy a claim of $250 to an amount claimed by Miss Summont to be due for services rendered.

The damage suit for $1000 against Miss Allan, which was to cover the injured feelings of Miss Summont, was filed later in the day. Late in the afternoon Miss Allan settled the civil suit for its full value, after which the damage suit was withdrawn. Miss Allan, who was to have departed for California yesterday morning, left this morning for the coast.

Blames Wife

WATSEKA, Ill., April 1.—That Mrs. Lucy Saylor, leaning over the body of her slain husband, J. H. Saylor, declared it was all his fault, was the testimony which stood out sharply today in the trial of Mrs. Saylor, her father, John Grindon, and Dr. W. E. Miller, for the murder of Saylor.

Two sisters of the slain banker declared such was the case. Mrs. Saylor is the sister of the corpse in the Saylor house. One of them, Mrs. Ida Pined, caused consternation in the crowded courtroom by saying Mrs. Saylor "looked as if she felt like saying to the body of her brother-in-law, 'We have got you where we want you.'"

This remark was ruled out of the evidence.

Sues for Heart

NEW YORK, April 1.—Because the life of a son she loved was robbed of its heart, Mrs. Mary Hassard has brought suit for $25,000 against Dr. T. D. Lehane, a Crotoner's physician. She charges Dr. Lehane performed an autopsy on the body and in so doing illegally abstracted the heart.

Money Saved Up

UTICA, N. Y., April 1.—Examination of the clothing of Ellen Holmes, 89 years old, found dead last week in her room in a boarding-house in this city, has brought to light $3864.47, hoarded in her skirt. The money was sewed in little bags in the folds and small coins. The body had been taken in charge by the Department of Charities, who made arrangements for the funeral.

Lived as Man

ST. LOUIS, April 1.—Frances Hansen, 25 years old, who for the last year has been known as a man, working as such in male attire, was found to be a woman last night after being hurt in falling from a third-story window.

She was under the name of Francis Hansen and was planning to join a burlesque troupe.

Attack Results in Death

UTICA, N. Y., March 31.—Mrs. Estelita, the mother of several small children, died today as the result of injuries sus- tained in repulsing the embraces of Stanislaus Czopok, a boarder.

The man threw his arms about the woman while she was at work near the top of a flight of stairs. She pushed him from her and he fell backward, disengaging her with him. Her neck was broken. Czopok will be charged with manslaughter.

One of the few ladies of the European peninsula who can lay claim to horsemanship is Queen Victoria of Spain. As a rule Spanish ladies are too indolent to ride.

In a lonely lighthouse on a jutting ledge of lime rock on Rhode Island's coast, Ida Lewis is rounding out fifty-three years of government service. The nation's veteran keeper, she guards the entrance to Narragansett bay. Hale in her sixty-five years of strenuous activity, she is still untiring, dauntless and brave. In the face of gale and storm she has snatched from the tumbling waters off her steady beacon twenty-three human lives. Five of these lives she saved last summer. She is a pensioner of the Carnegie hero fund, holds the government first-class medal for bravery and the American cross of honor. Ida Walley Zoradia Lewis was made assistant keeper of Lima Rock light by congress in 1879 and succeeded her mother in 1887 as keeper. Her father was also keeper at his death in 1872. The United States awarded her a grand medal in gold for saving two men off the light in a terrible storm on February 1, 1881.

An entertaining anecdote is told of that great singer, Adelina Patti. She was engaged to give a concert at Bucharest, but a few days before the time fixed she decided it was so cold that she could not possibly travel. The poor impresario was in despair, the concert was the concert of the season, and every seat was taken. At last he had a bright idea. He telegraphed to Patti, "Roumanian nobles prepare grand welcome," and followed this message with a letter descriptive of the honors awaiting the great singer. Patti swallowed the bait and started for Bucharest. When her train drew up at the platform a military band played the national anthem, sixty gray-bearded noblemen in wonderful uniforms welcomed her with speeches, white-robed maidens threw roses in her path and an imposing cortege followed her to the Grand hotel, where, with much bowing and many compliments, she was installed.

MAN HAD TWENTY-FOUR WIVES

NEW YORK—With twenty-four marriages to his credit, eleven of which he entered into in one year, Arthur P. Zimmerman, alias Baron Von Lichtenstein, was sentenced by Judge Dike in Brooklyn to Sing Sing prison for not more than nine years and six months and not less than four years and eight months. The punishment followed a conviction for perjury which was a direct result of Zimmerman's last bigamous marriage, which he entered into in Brooklyn, after having been married to a woman in Louisiana.

The only reason why Zimmerman did not answer a bigamy charge when called to trial was because a complaint of perjury was necessary to get him from Canada into the jurisdiction of the Brooklyn courts. It was his marriage to a woman in Louisiana that caused his trouble.

After getting as much of her money as he could he went to Canada, and a few days later she learned that he had married Mrs. Emily Grohman, also of Brooklyn, only a short time before.

Following Zimmerman's conviction last week Judge Dike caused an investigation to be made. From the information he obtained from records and the stories brought to him by policemen Judge Dike learned that Zimmerman had had twenty-four wives and nearly as many children. Judge Dike's record showed that Zimmerman, who is now about fifty years old, began his marrying career in Germany in 1872, when he wedded Marie Gringer. His next marriage was in 1874. In the following year he wedded eleven women, mostly widows, who had been left with small sums of money.

Zimmerman came to America in 1878 and conducted his marrying exploits in New York, Connecticut, and Massachusetts till 1886. Then there was a lapse of eleven years and in 1897 he took another bride. There was another lapse until 1904, when he made up for lost time by marrying three widows within the year.

In sentencing Zimmerman Judge Dike said: "Marriage with you was not only a habit, it was a disease, and when, as in your case, it was accompanied with elements of high finance in always getting from your victims all the cash they possessed, your arrest and conviction became a positive boon to the community. Such a man who would prey upon the credulity of trusting women has no right to be free."

In sentencing Zimmerman Judge Dike said: "Marriage with you was not only a habit, it was a disease, and when, as in your case, it was accompanied with elements of high finance in always getting from your victims all the cash they possessed, your arrest and conviction became a positive boon to the community. Such a man who would prey upon the credulity of trusting women has no right to be free."

Zimmerman came to America in 1878 and conducted his marrying exploits in New York, Connecticut, and Massachusetts till 1886. Then there was a lapse of eleven years and in 1897 he took another bride. There was another lapse until 1904, when he made up for lost time by marrying three widows within the year.

Mrs. Irvine Is Set Free From Man Who Gave Her Drinks

NEW YORK—Justice Giegerich of the supreme court decided yesterday that when a girl, eighteen years old, drinks three or four cocktails, she is not in a frame of mind to realize the nature of a marriage ceremony. He accordingly annulled the marriage of Elsie Madeline Irvine of No. 401 West Forty-second street to Robert Irvine Jr.

The girl testified that Sunday evening, May 25, 1927, she was on her way to church when she met Irvine, who had been courting her. After service he asked her to take a walk and she went with him.

"He took me," she said, "to a place at Thirty-sixth and Broadway called the Marlboro, saying he wanted to get something to drink. I asked for a glass of soda, but there was none, and he ordered something else. We had two or three drinks, and then he took me to a restaurant at Fourth avenue and Twenty-eighth street."

TOLD OF DRINKS. "What kind of drinks did you have in the Marlboro?" asked the court.

"I think they were some sort of cocktail, your honor."

She said she believed the drinks she had at the other place were "cocktails or something even stronger."

Then Irvine took her into a taxicab to the home of Henry March Warren "the marrying parson." She remembered signing a paper, but little else.

A few days later Irvine told her she was his wife. She said she did not believe it, but he insisted it was true.

Frederick, Irvine, the girl's father told of his daughter coming home the night he said she seemed dizzy and said her head ached. She went to bed and was ill the next day. Irvine did not defend the suit.

A GREAT TALKER

I once met Miss Geneva, when passing by her gate. And asked if she'd go strolling. She said "That would be great!" I spoke about the weather we'd all enjoy of late. Geneva showed her dimples, and smiled. "It has been great!"

Enured a silence deadly, which, hoping to abate. I asked her, "How's your mother?" She laughed, "Ma's feeling great!" The minutes, two novels, a play, my sister Kate—

No matter what I mentioned, Geneva thought 'twas great.

It happened, some months later—I don't recall the date—She married Cousin Herbert (no doubt she thought him great).

"She neither sings nor waltzes nor plays," I heard him state, "But when it comes to talking, Geneva's simply great!"

Russian Countess Serves Family of Rich American

BROOKLYN.—At least one American citizen can boast of having had a bona fide countess as a servant. He is a wealthy Brooklyn manufacturer, M. L. Lehman, of No. 55 Park place. The servant, who has left them to go back to Russia, is the Countess Delia Romanoff, the wife of Count Ivan Romanoff, one of the nobility of Russian-Poland.

Nearly two years ago Mrs. Lehman, in making the rounds of the various employment agencies, saw a young woman who looked particularly intelligent. The young woman, said she was Delia Romanoff and was hired. Mrs. Lehman and her family regarded Delia as the best servant they ever had. Her wages were raised three times.

A little more than two years ago her husband, Count Ivan who had a large estate, became embroiled in a political quarrel, and he was exiled and his lands confiscated. He was afraid to communicate with his wife for fear his mail would be tampered with. The wife only knew he had come to America. She sought her mother-in-law and her two children to America. While working for Mrs. Lehman, her children having been placed in a charitable institution, Delia would go from hospital to hospital to inquire about Ivan, believing that was the best way to trace him.

While she was on her way to the King's County Hospital, on March 9, she met a fellow-countryman who told her he had seen Ivan and where she could find him. That night she met her husband. All went to live in a home which Count Ivan established.

"Last week, after they had started up their little home," Mrs. Lehman said last night, "there came to our house, addressed to the Countess Delia Romanoff, a large package bearing a Russian postmark and numerous Russian seals. The letter informed her that she and her husband and her family could return; that the husband was pardoned for his political activity, and that his estates would be returned to him. On Saturday they sailed and we saw them off. I will not tell you on what steamer, because they do not want to attract any attention."

WOMAN ROOSEVELT

"A woman Roosevelt" is the title of a picture which is being sold in Paris bookshops. It is a scene in an East African jungle. The middle of the picture shows a small clearing, around which the nearly naked savages are clustered, and in the foreground, seated on a mound, is the Princess Helene of Orleans. She holds a rifle and has her eyes directed toward one of two dead rhinoceros, which fell by her shots. The picture is reproduced and enlarged from a photograph which was taken while the princess was on her last hunting expedition, accompanied by natives of the village of Buxi, in the Portuguese province.

GIRL ON TRIP SOUTH STOPS OFF TO ELOPE

NEW YORK—George H. Campbell, general superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio railway, received a telegram (dated Elliott City, Md., signed by his daughter, which read as follows:

"Papa—I am married. (Signed) 'ANNA MAY.'"

Thus briefly did Miss Campbell announce her marriage to Louis Hay Elcheberger, of Baltimore. It could not be said to be an entire surprise to Mr. Campbell, for he knew of his daughter's engagement to Mr. Elcheberger.

"It is all right, though," he said last night in his home in Plainfield, N. J. "I did not expect it to take place so soon, but my daughter and her husband will receive my blessing when the return from their honeymoon."

What Mr. Campbell did not know was that the young couple had indulged in an automobile wedding as the culmination of a romance which began in childhood. A few weeks ago Miss Campbell started to visit her grandmother in Louisiana. She broke her trip in Baltimore and stopped with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Knight. It was arranged that she should resume her journey yesterday.

Mr. Elcheberger had been a frequent visitor at Mrs. Knight's house during Miss Campbell's stay. He did not like to part from his fiancée, so he persuaded her that the happy day should no longer be delayed. With these friends the engaged pair went to Elliott City.

Gretna Green of Maryland, on Wednesday evening, obtained a license and were married by the Rev. Vernon N. Rigley.

SWALLOWED INK AND MATCHES WHEN FATHER TURNED DOWN LOVE FOR MAN

NEW YORK.—Rather than marry the man her father had chosen for her, Angelina May, aged 21 years, swallowed about fifty match heads in water, swallowed the mixture, and then drank ink. She will recover.

For the past two weeks Angelina has been employed in a shirt-waist factory and there she met an operator with whom she fell in love. Her father, a cigar manufacturer and grocer, long ago decided that his daughter should marry John Ammie, also a cigar manufacturer. She had loved him since she was a child, but she had never loved him as a man.

She went to work this morning at the usual hour, and had no sooner seated herself at a machine in the factory's operating room than she collapsed and fell to the floor in a faint. When physicians revived her she told what she had swallowed.

CHAPERONS NEEDED FOR TIMID BACHELORS.

It is being rumored that chaperons are coming in. And one hears that it is the men who are starting the reform for—some hesitate to say it—for their own protection and as a means of allaying their nervous fears. It seems that the "chaperoning system" existing in other countries has caught their attention and pleases them greatly. They are under the impression that the men instituted it, and they feel it is a thing they have been wanting for years. The growing prevalence of Ann Whitefields may have had something to do with it, or the discovery of the fact that big, strong, competent Englishmen never dream of running the risk that American men have been exposing themselves to for years—but be these things as they may, it is not to be denied that there is a timid apprehension, a gloomy depression which makes the incoming of chaperons encouraged, welcomed. Perhaps it is better; a precaution taken in time saves many a bachelor.

Orrine Cured Him of DRUNKENNESS

Her Husband Now Spends His Evenings at Home.

She brought Orrine from the drugist in her home town—she bought it after reading the Orrine Free Booklet. In the Booklet she read of the wonderful cures of drunkenness which were accomplished by the aid of Orrine. On page ten of the Booklet she read the liberal guarantee to refund all money paid for Orrine if it failed to effect a cure. After reading the Booklet she became convinced that Orrine was a remedy of unusual merit. She decided to purchase it and cure her husband of drunkenness. Orrine cured him. Now she is a happy wife in a happy home. Orrine helped to purchase the home. Read the following letter from Walter K. Schmidt Co., 44 Canal St., Grand Rapids, Mich.:

"For a number of years we have been agents for Orrine. During that time we have had occasion to be convinced beyond a doubt, that Orrine is a reputable remedy, worthy of recommendation. One of the many cases coming to our attention, a mechanic earning $22.50 per week, who had not taken a full day's leave home for over five years, was induced to try Orrine, a complete cure being the result. The man became worth more to his firm, receiving an advance in pay, and has purchased a home. The house stands there showing the merits of Orrine. We cannot help but feel that we were most fortunate when we secured the agency for this reliable liquor cure."

Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1, a powder absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. Orrine No. 2, in pill form, is for those who wish to cure themselves. Orrine costs only $1 a box. The guarantee is in each box. Write for Free Orrine Booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to Orrine Co., 655 Orrine Building, Washington, D. C. Orrine is for sale in this city by the Orrine Drug Co., Broadway and Thirteenth streets. They know Orrine is a reliable and efficacious remedy for drunkenness and they will not offer you a substitute.

EX-CHAMPION CABLES HIS CONSENT TO MEET BLACK

President of Mission Club Offers
Big Guarantee to Heavyweight;
Memsic and Powell Near Form

By EDDIE SMITH

SUCCESSFUL on the success of the Nelson Wolcott world's championship contest which he staged at Point Richmond, Thomas O'Day, president and manager of the Mission Athletic Club of San Francisco, has become ambitious and to secure an attraction that he believes is equally big as the one he staged last year. He has secured the consent of the late Tommy Burns to come here to meet Sam Langford. Prior to coming to Australia for the consent of Burns, O'Day had talked the matter over with Joe Woodman, manager of Langford, and everything on that end of the match was arranged to the satisfaction of all concerned.

When it was first proposed to bring Burns to this country it looked like a hopeless task for the Mission club, but O'Day has taken on a word of flesh. Besides, Burns had said that he did not care to come back to America and would only come here for the one desire of his life, another meeting with Joe Johnson. Burns is a fighter in whom the commercial instincts of the game are so strongly rooted however that it was simply a matter of awaiting the right offer before making another start. Bill Lang, Australia's only heavyweight who appears to have any chance at all as a fighter, was not Burns' first choice, but Burns would not leave the Antipodes

FIGHT BIG CARD

That Burns and Langford would give a good boxing treat is not the slightest doubt in the world, and O'Day would surely have another large house at his Richmond arena. To have secured the Canadian's consent to come to this country, the promoter must have guaranteed him a nice sum of money to the business was done in such a short time and with such rapidity that it is almost hard to believe that the San Francisco man has got the former champion to agree.

If it is indeed true that O'Day can say that he is the first man the world over who was able to get Burns to consent to a match without dicker with him, it is a feat. The business with Burns was done in the following manner: A copy of the telegram sent the night and the answer are printed below.

Tommy Burns, Esq., Sydney, Australia: Have you guaranteed (I am out with) your only to meet Sam Langford, forty five pounds September 10th?

SID HESTER, San Francisco: I have guaranteed you a nice sum of money to the business was done in such a short time and with such rapidity that it is almost hard to believe that the San Francisco man has got the former champion to agree.

POWELL NEARS WEIGHT

The fact that Burns has selected the first National Bantam weight as the stakeholder of the guarantee is natural through the fact that in this section of the country he always did his business through the bank. If O'Day handles this matter, he will probably have it all settled by the 10th of September, for he cannot get Burns here and have him in shape to fight before that time. Burns has been doing the lay-off for a long time and will have some trouble in getting into his usual shape. He will have to fight a heavy weight of beating the Londoner.

MEMSIC NEARS WEIGHT

George Memsic is almost a weight for the Law Powell contest in Oakland next Wednesday night. When he enters the ring for the first round contest, he will have had here in a long time an experience to be in a much better condition than he was for the ten round contest that pair indulged in at Los Angeles. For the contest in the south Memsic had to make a weight that was two pounds lighter than the one Powell has now agreed to and it seemed some of the strength of the Bohemian and entered the ring at what he considered anything but his best.

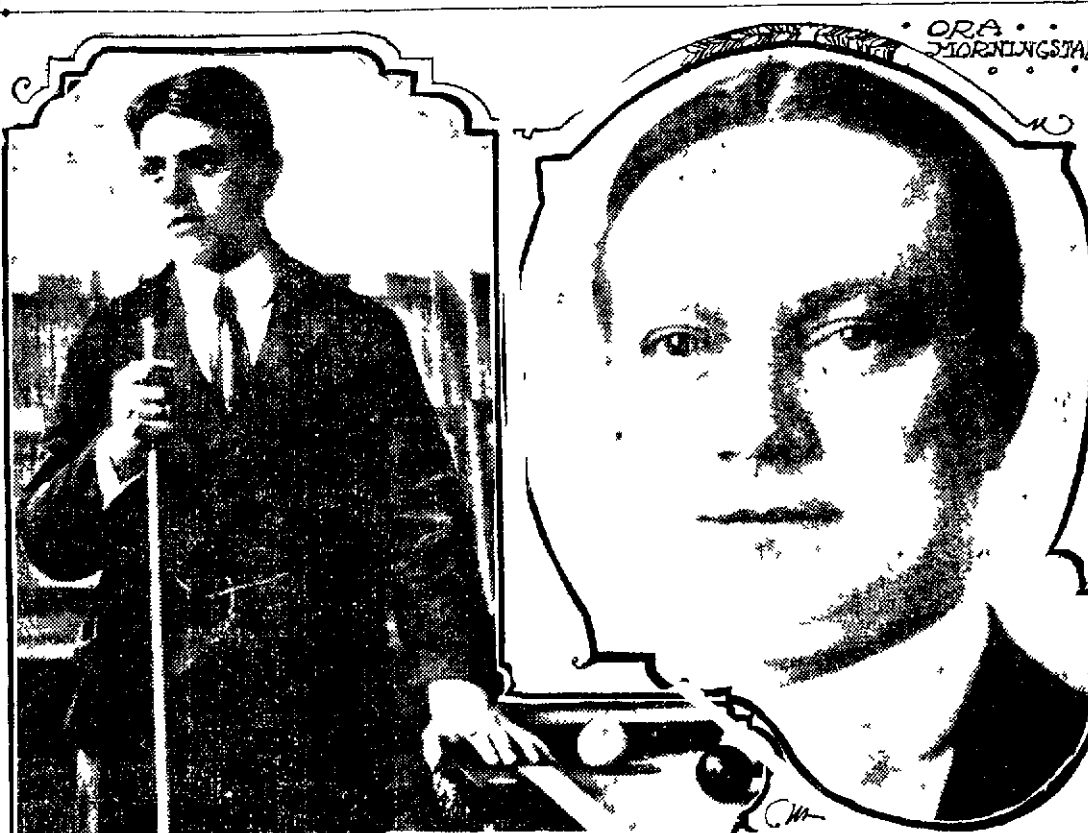

Memsic is one of the sort of fighters whose strict attention to his training work has sometimes sent him into the ring a bit stale and when he is required to make a low weight he has himself down to it. For the Powell fight he is believed to have been in the Turk who has handled him in the past. Nelson and Jack O'Brien in many of his fights on the coast and who will keep at him a time in his effort to keep the lightweight from over training.

Powell has been at work at Miller's place for the past month, but with the experience Lew had in the Wolcott fight he has taken things easy. The night

HOPPE AND MORNINGSTAR TO PLAY HERE TONIGHT.

Hoppe with Morningstar as an opponent will play a 500-point match game of 18-2 billiards at the Oakland Billiard Parlors tonight. The experts play here fresh from the marvelous records they have been establishing in the southland and expect to play the game of their lives.

Hoppe is well known on this coast from his previous visits and record generally. Morningstar occupies the position in the billiard world where he is just a little bit better than any one else except Hoppe and the only logical opponent for the latter. Their matches are always interesting from the fact that any time Morningstar is liable to put one over on Hoppe.

Four Favorites Fail the Talent During Afternoon--Big Crowd Turn Out to Witness the Sport of Kings

By LEE DEMIER

The crowd that gathered at the Oakland track yesterday far surpassed any Thursday crowd since the opening of the season. It looked like as if it was back again to the old days to see so many of the fair sex and their escorts in their old familiar places seated in the grand stand. The clubhouse took on a new lease of life with the sprinkling of the crowd from both sides of the bay. The layers worked with their coats off and they had more than they could do to handle the business of the clients. Since the Supreme Court decision creating a stakeholder the line on silent was augmented by three additional layers. George H. Smith the man that has charge of the bureau of information for ten more layers who will make the weight Saturday. Even the wet goods department which has been suffering all winter from lack of business has picked up wonderfully since the stakeholder system was installed. Skip the sandily venter at the track had business increased 5 per cent and so on down the line.

Tenth Annual C. A. C. Novice Event Will Find Oaklanders Favorites.

The outdoor racing season of the California Associated Cyclists will be ushered in on Sunday April 3 at the Stadium track in San Francisco. The occasion being the tenth annual C. A. C. Novice Event. This race is for bicyclists who have never competed on an interclub team and six clubs will endeavor to capture the valuable trophy donated by the association.

The Oakland Associated and College City Wheelmen will represent Alameda county in the New Century and Golden City will be the San Francisco entries and the Garden City will represent San Jose. Each team will consist of six men and each heat will give miles or eight laps over the course. The different captains of the clubs entered have held numerous trials to select their teams and the consensus of opinion of the cycling fans of the bay is that the aggregation gathered together by Captain Eddie Carroll the veteran cyclist of the Oakland Wheelmen will be the favorites on the day of the race and will make a good show for the honors.

The New Century of San Francisco the winners in 1909 and the Garden City of San Jose who captured the race in 1908 can be counted upon to line up a class bunch and will give the crack Oakland team a hard contest to gain possession of the trophy which goes to the winning team. The race will start at 2 p. m. and will be refereed by Robert Dunlop of Bay City Wheelmen, chairman of the racing and records committee of the C. A. C.

The teams will line up as follows:

CHARTER CONVENTION CALLS OUT REPRESENTATIVE CROWD

Fear for Intrusion of Corporation Interests Causes Consideration of Amendments; Committees Created to Carry On Work

When President Thomas F. Marshall, in calling the charter convention of clubs to order, last evening, at the auditorium of the Polytechnic College, Twelfth street, expressed the sentiment that "this is the most representative body of citizens that has ever assembled in this city to consider matters of the greatest import to the future welfare and betterment of Oakland," he was hailed with a round of applause and when he announced that in view of the possibility of many knotty parliamentary questions being raised during the debate on the various subjects to be considered, in which he might desire to participate, he would surrender the gavel to the vice-chairman, Professor Ingraham, it excited good natured laughter, which passed them to bring about a quick decision to business. It was decided to restrict speeches to three minutes, which effectively prevented an oratorical deluge. Scantling the possibility of trouble, although there was not a suggestion of any at any stage during the three hours' session three sergeants at arms were appointed.

ALL IN EARNEST.

While there were occasional humorous sidelights to the proceedings of the convention which excited laughter, there was no mistaking the earnestness of the delegates and the general desire to arrive at the least degree of friction and the minimum loss of time. At the same time, it was made clear on several occasions that a wholesome fear existed lest the multitude of motions, amendments and substitutes the convention should fail a prey to corporation interests and its purposes be thus defeated. This was particularly noticeable whenever in the creation of committees, any effort was made to multiply their membership and thus make them cumbersome and unwieldy. Every attempt to enlarge a committee, on whatever plea it was made, was promptly scotched.

The session was devoted entirely to the organization of working committees. Those ultimately formed were a committee on platform, a judiciary committee, a committee to nominate new freeholders and a publicity committee.

The following delegates were named by the chair to constitute the committee on platform: R. E. Gaylord, chairman; Ruben Wland, Thomas F. Marshall, E. A. Freeman and Arthur L. Adams. These five were authorized under the resolution creating the committee to select four others from the body of the convention, thus making a committee of nine.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE.

The committee to submit the names of fifteen freeholders to the convention at its next meeting was restricted to fifteen, notwithstanding a strong effort was made to enlarge it so that it should be composed of one delegate from each organization in the convention, which would have made it a committee of 115, that number of clubs and organized associations being represented on the convention roll. Of the fifteen finally agreed upon seven were named by the chair, as follows:

I. H. Clay, James P. Montgomery, W. E. Gibson, J. C. Frederickson, J. W. Smart, J. C. Downey and R. A. Leet.

These seven were directed to name eight others from the list of the delegates which will then constitute the full committee.

JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

As there are many legal questions associated with the purpose of the convention, at the suggestion of the chair, a judiciary committee was organized to be composed of all the lawyers sitting as delegates. And on motion of Attorney Grey, Judge R. B. Myers was named as the chairman of the committee.

All legal points raised in the course of the work undertaken by the convention are to be referred to this committee. Such reference was made to the questions which were raised as to the eligibility of residents in the annexed district to serve as freeholders in the board of freeholders to be elected to frame a charter and whether the election of freeholders came under the primary law.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLICITY.

A committee of publicity was formed consisting of the following members: Thomas F. Marshall, Harry C. Wuerth and James P. Montgomery.

The following resolution offered by Delegate Geider was referred to the committee on platform:

"Be it resolved by the charter convention of the City of Oakland in meeting assembled, this 31st day of March, 1910, as follows:

"That the proposed new charter of the City of Oakland contain a section under the head or division of contracts, or any other proper head or division, as follows:

"Every contract for work to be performed for the city, whether such contract be under the direct supervision of the city or whether it be a sub-contract, must provide that in the performance of any such contracts, eight hours shall be the maximum hours of labor on any calendar day and that the minimum wages of laborers employed by the contractor in the performance and execution of any such contract shall $2.50 per day.

CITIZENS WORKMEN ONLY.

"Provided, however, that any and all work to be performed for the city, whether such contract be under the direct supervision of the city or whether such contract be a sub-contract, must provide that none but citizens of the United States of America shall be employed in the performance thereof. Any contract or sub-contract for work to be performed for the city which does not comply with the provisions of this section shall be null and void, and any officer who shall sign the same shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance and on proof of such malfeasance, shall be removed from office."

The convention then adjourned for two weeks.

NO INDIGESTION OR SICK STOMACH

Hearburn, Gas, Headache and Dyspepsia Go and You Will Feel Fine in 5 Minutes.

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—maybe you call it indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach, it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapensin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice, your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, burning of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any, that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery. Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapensin.

He was a native of New York and is survived by a widow. He was eighty-two years old last Saturday. Merchants' Exchange to Decorate Streets for Coming G. A. R. Meet.

Following the visitation of the Grand Army encampment committee with the members of the Tri-City Rotary Club at luncheon yesterday, when it was urged by H. C. Capwell that the $5000 fund be raised at once for the entertainment of the guests, the committee met again last evening with the general citizens' committee in the rooms of the Merchants' Exchange.

The G. A. R. committee, composed of William R. Blair, chairman; H. Bendet, P. W. Carroll, A. T. Needham and S. R. Chapman, appeared for the purpose of discussing the general scheme for decoration about the downtown district. The committee will also appear before the Supervisors with a request that they provide for the decoration of the courthouse and the Hall of Records. The City Council will also be approached in regard to decorating the city hall.

The street decorations will be under the supervision of the Merchants' Exchange and the Chamber of Commerce will provide for the publication of the official programs. Therefore the Grand Northeast Corner of Fourteenth Street Purchased by San Franciscan for $30,000.

The Layman Real Estate Company has just sold to Thomas Pennington of San Francisco the northeast corner of Fourteenth and Madison street, size 150x100, on which there is a fine two-story, fourteen-room residence, until recently occupied by Edson Adams, the well-known banker. The consideration of the transfer was $30,000.

Mr. Layman when interviewed as to the purposes the new owner will put the same to, said that the owner had no plans at present, but ultimately a fine apartment house would be built thereon, it being a corner especially adapted for that purpose. The purchaser is a San Francisco manufacturer and is well impressed with Oakland's future.

Army will be relieved of these two important items.

As the date for the encampment is now less than three weeks away, activity will soon commence in a more material manner.
